

Arlington Advocate.

C. S. PARKER & SON, Proprietor.

Devoted to the Local Interests of the Town.

TWO DOLLARS AND A HALF A YEAR. Single Copies 6 cents.

Vol. Lii.

ARLINGTON, MASS., FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1923.

No. 6.

THE COMMUNITY MEN'S CLUB (ARLINGTON HEIGHTS)

PRESENTS

THE SHOW OF A THOUSAND LAUGHS

WILLIAM COLLIER'S Greatest Success

"NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

With the following cast

Bob Bennett	Mr. Wm. O. Partridge, Jr.
E. M. Ralston	Mr. George Averill
Richard Donelly	Mr. Frank Kirchgassner
Clarence Van Dusen	Mr. Sherman Peppard
Bishop Doran	Mr. Paul Hackett
Gwendoline Ralston	Miss Doris Raymond
Mrs. E. M. Ralston	Mrs. Walter Vaughn
Ethel Clark	Miss Leah Wallace
Mabel Jackson	Mrs. Oscar Schneiter
Sabel Jackson	Miss Edith Byram
Martha	Miss Margaret Danskin

January 16th
TOWN HALL

ADMISSION 50 CENTS
RESERVED SEATS 75 CENTS

IF YOU MISS IT — — — YOU'LL REGRET IT

Arlington Storage Warehouse 20 MILL ST., ARLINGTON, MASS.

325 Separate Locked Rooms—Fire and Insect Proof.

GRAND OPENING OF
The Monument Spa
SATURDAY, JANUARY 6
AT ONE O'CLOCK
Souvenirs Given Away

We carry a full line of high grade confectionery, ice cream, sodas
440 Mass. Ave. Arlington

LONGFELLOW CHAPTER, NO. 117, O. E. S. PRIVATE IN- STALLATION OF OF- FICERS

Odd Fellows' Hall, Arlington, was the scene of an interesting function on Tuesday evening, January 9th, when officers of the Longfellow Lodge, No. 117, Order of Eastern Star, were installed. The regular meeting was held at 4:30 p.m. At 6:15 o'clock there was a splendid supper served, chairmaned by Mrs. Grace V. Bourcy.

At eight o'clock came the installation by Mrs. Carrie A. Cushing, P. G. M., and Gr. Secretary, who was assisted by Linyville H. Higgins, P. P. Priscilla Chapter; Annie L. Woodman, A. G. Cond., as marshal; Sarah L. Long, chaplain emeritus, Longfellow Chapter; Natalia Weldner, of Malden Chapter, organist. This was made an impressive exercise during which the Apollo quartet gave selections. Mrs. Katherine S. Ryder, the worthy matron who was installed at this time and she received other gifts. The retiring officers were also re-membered with gifts, making it all in a gala night for the lodge. Grand patron of the order, Mrs. George F. Mosher and Mr. Mosher were present, also several members of the Grand Chapter, from different parts of the state, making a notable affair in the history of the Chapter. The officers installed were as follows:

Officers elect:—Katherine S. Rider, Worthy Matron; George H. Higgins, Worth Matron; Martha A. Higgins, Associate Matron; Ida C. Hunt, Conductor; Ruth Perham, Associate Conductor; Nellie C. Wedleir, P. M., Secretary; Jennie E. Odell, Treasurer.

Appointed Officers:—Valerie M. Bourcy, Adah; Ida Mae Wolmer, Ruth; Mattie M. McDonald, Esther; Marianne M. Berrie, Martha Jane Smith, Electa; Alice M. DeNoyer, Marshal; Elizabeth Shilker, Chaplain; Beatrice A. Tainor, Organist; Edna L. Mitchell, Warden; Oscar E. McDonald, Sentinel.

PAST COMMANDER W. C. SCAN- NELL GIVEN A SURPRISE PARTY

Wednesday evening, Past Commander William C. Scannell of Arlington Post, American Legion, was given a surprise party by ex-officers and members of the executive committee of the local Post. It is always hard to trap William C., but his comrades succeeded in this and put one over on him in good style.

During the past year, Mr. Scannell has given most efficient service as commander of the Post and his associates were anxious to express their appreciation in some way other than a past commander's badge and complimentary words, so a banquet was arranged which was held at the American House, Boston, Wednesday evening, January 10th.

On the pretence that a comrade was in trouble, he was gotten to the hotel and when he arrived was ushered into a room reserved for the party and then the fun began. After the serving of the banquet, speeches were in order, Gardner C. Porter, acting as toastmaster. Interspersed between the speeches were vocal numbers by several of the members, who are especially talented in this line. The party was arranged for by John A. Colbert, Timothy Buckley and Paul Fraser.

JOINT INSTALLATION OF POST 39, AMERICAN LEGION, AND WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Tuesday, January 9th, will go down in the history of Arlington Post No. 39, American Legion and of the Woman's Auxiliary, affiliated with the Post, as one of the big events in each organization, for at that time the newly elected officers of both organizations were installed in the presence of large gatherings of comrades of the American Legion and Auxiliary and by comrades of the G. A. R. and their Auxiliary, and took place in G. A. R. Hall, which was filled with members of these organizations and visitors.

The officers of Arlington Post were installed by acting department Commander Stephen C. Garrity of Lowell, member of the Middlesex Council and chairman of the executive committee. Past Department Commander Alfred H. Knowles, was officer of the day, who is also past commander of Franci. Gould Post 36, G. A. R. Comrade Knowles is a great favorite among the Legion boys and no function of theirs is complete without him. The officers inducted into office were:

Charles J. Riley, commander; Dr. George A. Clark, senior vice-commander; Dr. William T. McCarthy, junior vice-commander; Chester R. Whitman, finance officer; Leonard C. Tins, adjutant; Gerard B. Ladd, chaplain; Charles F. Ladd, historian; William H. Keeff, Paul V. Chandler and Robert C. Clifford, Jr., finance committee; William C. Scannell, Joseph A. Long, Dr. Arthur H. Ring, Clifford D. Strout, Minor R. Edwards and Paul Fraser, executive committee.

This ceremony was followed by the installation of the officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Moses, representing the state office, being the installing officer. The ladies installed were:

Mrs. Alice L. Goland, president; Miss Mary V. McCarthy, vice-president; Miss Ethel Bennett, secretary; Mrs. Frank M. Harwood, historian; Mrs. Ethel Phagg, color bearer; Miss Dorothy Surrette, guard and Mrs. McMillion Riley, conductor.

During the speech making the installing officers spoke relative to the organizations of which they represented. Mr. Garrity paid high tribute to the great harmony which apparently exists here, between the G. A. R. and the Legion, as well as the Auxiliaries of both organizations. This cooperation he said was not found in any other section of the state. Past Commander John A. Colbert of Arlington Post, told of the efficient work done in the past year by the retiring Commander, William C. Scannell, and in behalf of the local Post, presented Commander Scannell, with a past commander's badge, which Commander Scannell accepted in a happy manner.

Department Commander of the Mass. G. A. R., Henry Clark, was a guest of the evening and spoke, being followed by Past Department Commander Knowles, both comrades being received with great outbursts of applause.

During the evening, Thayer's orchestra furnished musical numbers. For entertainment there were dances by Miss Betty Neills of this town and vocal numbers by Walter Guyette, the latter being accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth C. Staniel.

At the close of the entertainment program a collation was served, in charge of John A. Colbert, Walter Nix and John O'Brien. General dancing followed in the upper hall until a late hour.

Just a word about the new commander of this hustling and rapidly growing Post. Commander Riley is an Arlington boy, always having lived here. He is the son of Mrs. James Riley of Norcross street. He is married and makes his home on Gardner street. In early life Commander Riley went in for athletics and long distance running was his hobby. He entered in two of the big Marathon runs in Boston. In 1905 he was made a member of the Metropolitan police force and was a member of this force at the time this country entered the World War. He enlisted in the army and was put with the replacement troops and sent to Camp Lee, Virginia. He was promoted to the rank of second lieutenant, and still holds this commission, in the reserve army. At the close of the war Commander Riley again resumed his police duties and patrolled for about a year, resigning to enter the automobile business.

AN IMPORTANT REAL ESTATE TRANSFER

HERBERT F. ALLEN BUYS THE ALLEN FARM ON LAKE STREET

A real estate transfer of importance in Arlington was put through last week, when the market garden farm on Lake street, near Mass. avenue, formerly owned and operated by the late William H. Allen, a life long resident of Arlington, and at one time the largest individual tax payer in the town, was sold by the Allen heirs to one of the sons of Mr. Allen, Herbert F. Allen, living at 32 Lake street, Arlington.

The property consists of over thirty-four acres of land with green houses, tenement houses and necessary farm buildings and personal property, all of which was assessed in 1922 for $79,953.68.

The purchaser, who managed the farm for his father, and later as a trustee for ten years, proposes to continue to operate it as a market garden farm, in addition to his adjoining tract of fourteen acres, also two hundred and fifteen acres of vegetable farm at Millis, Mass., owned by him.

POST 36, G. A. R. INSTALLATION

Thursday evening, in their hall on Mass. avenue, the officers of Francis Gould Post 36, G. A. R., were installed with the customary impressive services. The full roster follows:

Commander—George A. Locke.
Sr. Vice-Commander—George H. Averill.
Jr. Vice-Commander—Henry Quirk.
Surgeon—Henry A. Gorham.
Adjutant—Henry Clark.
Officer Of The Day—Andrew McGinnis.
Officer Of The Guard—Henry W. Berthrong.
Quartermaster—Henry Clark.
Patriotic Instructor—C. S. Parker.
Adjutant—Alfred H. Knowles.

The installation was preceded by a banquet served in the lower hall by W. R. C., No. 43, at which installing officers and special guests were entertained. The guests included Sons of Veterans and Auxiliary, officers of American Legion and their Auxiliary, town officers and others. The installing officer was Past Department Commander Edwin Morrill.

At the business meeting preceding the installation, comrades Clark, Knowles and Wright were named to present to Commander Hubbard, serving last year, a gold past commander's badge at his home, where he is confined by illness. Andrew G. McGinnis was appointed assistant patriotic instructor to have oversight of Belmont schools. A feature of the installation was the presentation of a "golden wedding" present from Post 36, to comrade H. W. Berthrong, by Adjutant Knowles.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

James R. Burns, the newly appointed member of the Police Department, assumed his duties Wednesday morning, at roll call.

Next Wednesday evening in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, Arlington Lodge of Elks, will hold its first annual Ladies' Night, and the committee in charge intends to make this a red letter occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Young of 15 Lakeview, have returned to Arlington, after spending the holidays as guests of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Granden Brooks, Jr., of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary and Social Union, scheduled to be held, Monday, January 8th, at the Baptist Church, was omitted on account of the storm.

"NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH" will mark the first personal appearance of Mr. Partridge in Arlington for some six years, although his personal touch has been evidenced by Under Fire, Strongheart, Brewster's Millions and Get Rich Quick Wailingford.

Sunday services in St. John's Episcopal Church will be morning prayer, 10:45 a.m. Evening prayer, 7:30 p.m. The annual parish meeting, postponed from last Monday evening, because of the storm, will be held in the parish house on Monday evening, January 22nd, at 8 o'clock.

There will be a regular meeting of the Arlington American Legion Auxiliary, Monday evening January 15th, at 8 o'clock, at the Legion headquarters. Everyone is urged to be present as the committees for the year will be appointed and general plans for the year's activities discussed. Please make an effort to be present.

Bishop N. S. Thomas of Wyoming, will speak on, "The Church's Programme," in St. John's Episcopal Church, next Friday evening, January 19th, at eight o'clock. Bishop Thomas is one of the most interesting speakers in the Episcopal Church, his addresses always entertaining as well as informing his hearers. It is hoped that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him.

The Concord, N. H. Patriot prints the following:—"Ernest Kimball of Arlington, Mass., spent the week-end in town on his way to his farm, which he recently purchased. It is the Burleigh farm, of 1000 acres, which he intends to make into a sheep ranch. He will commence to fence in a large part of this farm with woven wire fencing and hopes to keep 1000 sheep. The farm is located in Franklin, near the Orphan's Home."

Harry Parris, who for a number of years resided in this town, died at his home on Clarendon avenue, North Cambridge, Monday. The funeral took place from St. John's Church, North Cambridge, Wednesday morning. Mr. Parris lived for years in the cottage house in the rear of the R. W. Shattuck store. He was a boiler repair man by trade and an expert in his line of business. His wife and a large family survive him, one daughter being an assistant at the Board of Public Works office, in this town.

Pictures illustrating the Philippine Islands have been sent for exhibition in Robbins Library, until January 15th.

The annual reunion of the members of St. Agnes' Church, will take place in Robbins Memorial Town Hall, on February 12th.

In "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH," Mrs. Walter Vaughn needs no introduction to Arlington, as an accomplished actress. Her appearances, especially in the Woman's Club efforts, merit all that can be said of her.

A number of the members of the Boston Market Gardeners Association, residents of this town, attended the meeting held at 12 South Market street, Boston, last Saturday afternoon. The speaker of the afternoon was Howard S. Russell, secretary of the Massachusetts Farm Bureau Association, who told what the association can do for the market gardener.

The police received reports of petty thefts in the East Arlington section on Sunday and Monday of this week. The first complaint came from A. C. Zwicker of 12 Fairmount street, who stated that six barred rock chickens had been stolen from his hen coop. The second complaint came from 20 Amsden street, where milk had been stolen from the door step of the house at that number.

The annual meeting of the Orthodox Congregational Society will be held next Monday evening, in the church vestry. Supper will be served at 6:30, to the active and associate members of the church, who have been especially invited through a circular sent out by the clerk of the church, Mr. R. Walter Hilliard. The annual reports and election of officers, will follow the supper.

Mr. Lemuel Pitts of Wollaston, who had many relatives in Arlington, passed away at his home on January 7th. Mr. Pitts was born in Charlestown, in 1841, the son of Lemuel Pitts and Harriet A. Peirce, a descendant of Solomon Peirce. Mr. Pitts, enlisted in Company A, 36th Regiment, Mass. Volunteers. He leaves a widow, four daughters and two sons; also eight grandchildren. For 21 years Mr. Pitts was superintendent of the Metropolitan Water plant at Wollaston.

Arlington Council, Knights of Columbus, held a meeting in their hall on Mystic street, Monday evening, despite the stormy weather. It was largely attended and during the business session, arrangements were made for a ladies' night, some time this month. A committee was also appointed to make arrangements for the annual show of the council. Members contributed much toward making the evening an interesting one, with musical numbers.

A very unique New Year's dinner party was given to the J. D. Club, by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cotter, at their home, on Jason Terrace, Friday, January 5th. All the guests were requested to come dressed as children of ten or twelve years of age. Each guest brought toys to help out the costume. There was a great deal of merriment as the guests arrived. A most excellent roast goose dinner was served at 7:30, after which New Year's games were played and pantomimes enjoyed.

The Kensington Park Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Morse, 15 Temple street, Tuesday, January 9th. Mrs. Charles F. Winsor read the first paper "The A. B. C.'s of Twenty-one demands, made by Japan on China in 1915." A second paper, "American Democracy and Asiatic Citizenship," was given by Mrs. F. H. Clark, while Madam Young read a third article on the "Empress Dowager." Refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Walter Newton, 10 Trowbridge street, Tuesday, January 23rd.

Town elections come in March and already nomination papers are being circulated for the various offices. It will be well to remember that only one set of nomination papers can be signed for any one office, by the same person. Some in the past have affixed their name to more than one which is against the law. The town meeting members will be elected this year. If you sign a paper, remember what office it is for and do not sign another paper for the same office, especially where there is a contest. The nomination papers will have to be filed February 23rd, with the Town Clerk.

Monday night, while the gates at the center railroad crossing were lowered by the gate tender to allow a big snow plow to pass, Mr. E. L. Torrey of Pleasant street, swung his automobile around the corner of that street onto Mass. avenue, and not seeing that the gates were lowered crashed through one of the gates. The engineer of the snow

Continued on page 8.

HAMILTON'S LUNCH
434a Mass. Avenue	Arlington, Mass.
Hours 6 A. M. to 8:30 P. M.	Sunday, 8 A. M. to 8:30 P. M.
Family Parties Solicited —	Call and Arrange Menu
Extra Set-ups for Children
SPECIAL DINNER SUNDAY, JAN. 14, 1923
75c
Cream of Tomato Soup, Au Croton

OLD PEOPLE

The population of Arlington may be divided into three classes:—men and women grown, children, and old people. Of what use, if any, are the old people, the old people numbering 3000 or more? Might they not be treated to a dose of Euthanasia? They cannot work, except a little, so why should they be clothed, fed, and housed? Old things are prized highly, but how about old people? An old fossil may put us on the track of ancient life and an old human skeleton may help us to fathom the original or aboriginal man; but of what use can be a man or woman ninety or a hundred years old, or even seventy or eighty?

To some devoted people the question may sound cruel, yet more than once in the history of the world the inquiry has been seriously made. Even in highly civilized lands their "passing" is not always unwelcome.

What connection, however, would the present have with the past, if every human being over, say, 70, were whisked away suddenly into the upper or some other world? Hawthorne draws a vivid picture of the depopulation of the earth in an instant and the coming upon this uninhabited earth of a new Adam and Eve. Their surprise is both amusing and suggestive. But all they see is the work of men's hands, or ingenuity. Suppose they should see the people,—especially the people who built houses and towers; made roads and laid cables; invented telephone and radio and did a thousand things which have become as useful as breakfast or dinner? Would not these old people connect us with the past as no structure or invention can possibly do?

What would we give if we could talk with Adam or Moses, or Alexander, Socrates, Caesar, Paul, George the III or Washington? In Paris you may visit the tomb of Napoleon the first; but suppose you might sit down for an hour's conversation with the old man?

To receive some morning Ramezes whose mummy we may look upon, they say, would be something of a sensation; or to go fishing with Isaac Walton some cloudy day would be an interesting novelty.

The past becomes very real when we touch the hand that touched the embankment on Bunker Hill, or of Mary Chilton, who put her slender or large foot on Plymouth Rock. It is even not altogether univisifying to sit on the wall in Rome, built about the time of Romulus and Remus, or to climb up the Pyramid of Egypt, antedating the wall of Rome. Old people anyhow connect us with the former generations and that is no small gain.

They do even more. They are the seers of the world. Young men dream dreams, but old men see visions. Not all old men see visions or much of anything else; but old men, and women, too, as a rule see further into the undiscovered land than young people. The great rulers of the world have often been old men, though not always. The master soul of all ages was put to death before he was thirty-five. Yet old people have a background for great and far-seeing visions. Parties, enterprises, cults, and undertakings have been tested during their lives, and the failure of many of them does not leave old people stuck in the slough of despond. It may be difficult walking sometimes, but they pull up their belt another hole and trudge on.

No nation can endure without its seers, its dreamers. Ford may build cars, but Edison is the wizard. Enterprising men may build ships of iron and steel, but Marconi talks over seas and across continents on the wings of the wind. How to make money is no mean talent, but how to drop a great ideal into men's mind is far greater. The men who have seen visions, even before they rose above the horizon to most people are the greater benefactor. Our age is bent almost double on making money; but the man who "hitches his wagon to a star" does more for the world's advancement than all the multimillionaires ever ornamenting the earth. I do not say that old men are the only seers, but they constitute the majority. The world would put out its strongest light if old people were given the Euthanasia pill.

Then it is not altogether a misfortune to have a class somewhat dependent, at least physically. The bestowment of help is not wholly a gratuity. Like mercy: "It is twice blessed; It blesseth him that gives and him that takes."

Some ungrateful children and peoples may resent the dependence of old people, but their resentment is their crime, and their misfortune. Nine tenths of life's value must be found, if found at all, in giving. And often, when affections and giving go together, the cup of gladness overflows. Were the old people, even the dependent people, whisked away from us in a moment, we should be great losers.

And in youth we expect to live many years, though we may not; but in old age we know that the untried future cannot be far away. What a flight hence may reveal we may not know; but to know that the next station may be ours to test the future, should at least awaken a serious mood. And to walk with your ancient friend who tomorrow may go forth on that voyage, is not common place. The door has swung open to him and he knows more than you can know now. What seems to me significant is that between him and the shadow is only a handbreadth, perhaps even less, and surely it should be worth something to be the companion of one so near the other land.

Perhaps he may throw some light on what Tennyson calls "the haven under the hill." Surely he may tell you how one feels within the shadow along the horizon.

My plea is for the old man or woman, not as a piece of dead wood, or a chip on the tide, or a burden on the children, or community, but as a valuable link between the years that have gone and the years that will soon be gone.

JOHN G. TAYLOR.

MASSACHUSETTS DEPT. OF PUBLIC HEALTH

"Study In Maternal And Infant Hygiene"

The Massachusetts Department of Public Health announces a three day "Study Course in Maternal and Infant Hygiene" for nurses, which will be held in seven or eight centers of the state.

The first session met in Evan's Memorial, 80 East Concord street, Boston, January 8th, at 10 o'clock, and will be continued on the 15th and 22nd. The Boston session will be nearest to Arlington.

The subject for the first day was "Prenatal Care," for the second day will be "Maternal Care," and for the third day "Special Factors in Prenatal and Maternity Care." A most interesting and inclusive program has been planned. Dr. Fritz Talbot, Dr. Richard Smith, and Dr. Robert DeNormandie, leaders recognized everywhere in the medical world, will handle the technical problems. The nursing care, mouth hygiene, and nutrition will be taken up in detail. Community responsibility for maternity service and facilities for such service will be discussed.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS COMMUNITY MEN'S CLUB WINTER CARNIVAL BIG SUCCESS

Planning an out-of-door fete in this New England climate, be it either in summer or winter is considerable of risk, for weather can never be counted upon to be ideal, but the Community Men's Club of Arlington Heights could not have wished for a more perfect night to have held its snow carnival, than that of Friday, January 5th. Clear bracing air with a gorgeous full moon, and snow enough, in fact a bit too much to make skiing, one of the sports always indulged in at a winter carnival, quite ideal.

The carnival was held at the Arlington Country Club, which is just off to the left of the standpipe at the top of Park avenue, on the road to the Belmont Country Club. For several weeks the Community Men's Club had been planning this gala night, which was in charge of a committee, chairwoman by Mr. Alfred L. DeNoyer. Mr. DeNoyer is a hustler and his wide experience in managing big things makes his services invaluable and with the hearty cooperation of his assistants, there was staged one of the best events given at least in this town, for many a day. There was a real community spirit shown by the people in their attendance, for there were between four and five hundred present.

A heavy snow fall only two days before the carnival made preparations a bit complicated, for no end of shovelling had to be done to make the road to the club house passable, also the coast for skiing and tobogganing that had been ideal the week previous, but then covered with several inches of snow, had to be shovelled out. One of the big punts of the Arlington and Belmont Ice Company was hired to convey people from the Park Avenue Congregational Church to the club house and they made many trips. Park avenue was indeed an interesting and animated place. Young men and women, boys and girls with flexible flyers, snow shoes, skis and toboggans, trudged up the hill clad in the regulation sport clothes that added picturesqueness to the scene that was enhanced by the gorgeous moon and the brilliantly lighted homes along the avenue, many still dressed in their holiday greens and red lights, with not a few brilliantly lighted Christmas trees in evidence. In fact the entire Heights seemed to have put on its gala attire and never has it seemed more beautiful.

Inside and outside of the club house there was an animated company. Inside, the club house was handsomely decorated, suggesting snow and ice with huge snow balls suspended from the four corners of the ceiling, that later were broken and their contents of paper snow flakes allowed to float down upon the merry dancers. There were also the paper streamers thrown over the company that made a net-work of color most fascinating to watch as the dancers glided about the hall, noise making favors contributing to the spirit of the carnival.

An orchestra, led by Miss Carolyn P. Nichols, of the famous Fadette orchestra, played throughout the evening for dancing and accompanied the several artists who furnished an entertainment to those who preferred to sit about the wonderful open fire and be entertained, rather than to participate in the outdoor sports.

The entertainers were high class artists. Pauline Mason the dancer, whose services are in constant demand, gave an exhibition of beautiful dancing. Norman Arnold the baritone of the English Opera Company, sang with great acceptance. There were duett numbers by Camilla and Tummons, that met with approval from the audience.

Paulson, the Dartmouth champion skier, gave an exhibition outside and the evening passed merrily on. A huge bonfire at the end of the coast was a cheery sight. Here was a weeble roaster, from which was served the "hot dogs," and didn't they taste good?

Prizes were offered for the best sport costume worn by a young woman, also young man, the boy and girl. At the grand finale those in costume marched into the club house and passed in review of the judges who were Mrs. DeNoyer, Mrs. William V. Taintor, Mrs. Albert Young. They awarded the prizes to the following:—Miss Olive Doe, snow shoes; Miss Laura Ziegler, sweater; John Lamson, skis; Louise Stinson, sweater.

It was after midnight before the lights were turned out and the carnival of the Arlington Heights Community Club was over for the merry makers but not for the committee.

WILLIAM A. MULLER, Pres.

ARTHUR F. JONES, Treas.
M. L. CHAFFEE, Asst. Treas.

FREDERICK W. HILL, Asst. Treas.

ARTHUR T. HATCH, Vice-Pres.

GEORGE E. PHelan, Secy.
ROBERT M. BOYD, Asst. Secy.

W. L. McLAUGHLIN, Auditor

William A. Muller &amp; Co.

CORPORATION

BUSINESS ESTABLISHED 1847

INSURANCE

55 KILBY ST. — BOSTON, MASS.

BOSTON DEPARTMENT

Caledonian Insurance Co.

Chicago Fire & Marine Ins. Co.

The Concordia Fire Ins. Co.

Dorchester Mutual Fire Ins. Co.

Glens Falls Insurance Co.

Sun Insurance Office

Urbana Fire Ins. Co.

LIABILITY DEPARTMENT

The Employers' Liability Assurance Corporation, Limited

1847—75 YEARS OF INSURANCE SERVICE—1922

who had the after part to attend to, but their task was made the lighter, in the realization of the success of its first Winter Carnival. The full committee follows:—Alfred L. DeNoyer, (chairman); W. E. Sessler, treasurer; George B. Ottley, secretary; Norval Bacon, Charles Harvey, Bert S. Currier, William Wilson, C. T. Parsons, Joseph C. Holmes, F. Otto Johnson, Floyd Battis, Frank Kichgrasser, George Higgins, A. W. Freeman, Clinton W. Schwamb, Sherman Peppard.

FERNANDO MILES

Fernando Miles, the father of Mrs. William T. Roop, passed away January 4th, after only a few days' illness at the Roop residence, 32 Paul Revere road, Arlington Heights.

Mr. Miles was born in Newport, Maine, September 17th, 1840, the son of William Miles. When thirty-one years of age he moved to Cambridge, and entered the employ of what was then called the West-end Street Railroad Company, now the Boston Elevated. He continued in the latter's service until some seven years ago, when he was retired. He came to reside in Arlington Heights, twenty-five years ago and identified himself with the Park Avenue Congregational Church, where at the time of his death he was a deacon, loved and respected by all for his sterling qualities and kindly manner.

Mr. Miles was especially interested in the Grand Army of the Republic, having served in the 21st Maine Infantry about a year. He is a past commander of John A. Logan G. A. R. Post, of Cambridge, and in G. A. R. circles, was well known.

Fifteen years ago his wife, Ellen Bradford, passed away and since then the deceased has made his home with his only daughter, where the funeral was held Saturday, January 6. The devotional services were conducted by Rev. Harold L. Stratton, minister of the Park Avenue Congregational Church, assisted by Rev. John G. Taylor, minister emeritus of the church, who was a personal friend of Mr. Miles. Vocal solos were sung by a student of the Boston Conservatory of Music. The burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. The deceased is survived not only by Mrs. Roop, but by five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

JAMES W. FOWLER

James W. Fowler, well known contractor, passed away January 4, at his home on Lowell Place, Arlington Heights, where he has been ill since November. His business relations with builders and contractors made his acquaintance a wide one and there are many who will mourn his loss.

Mr. Fowler was born in Stockville, New Brunswick, August 4th, 1860, the son of Cyrus and Mary E. (Siddie) Fowler. He has always devoted himself to his work, never affiliating himself with any society, although when residing in New Brunswick, he was connected with the organization of Orangemen.

He married Eliza Boyce some forty-five years ago, and she survives her husband. Some twelve years ago the family moved to the Heights and became identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church, where the deceased was a member. The funeral services were held Sunday, the devotional exercises being conducted by Rev. Dr. LePage, of the church. The burial was in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Besides the wife, the deceased is survived by five daughters, and two sons. They are Mrs. Arthur MacPherson, Mrs. Arthur Allaby, of Boston, Mrs. Willard Wheaton, of Belmont, Mrs. Nelson Smith, Miss Besse Fowler, Mr. Allison Fowler, all of Arlington Heights, and William E. Fowler of Atlanta, Georgia. There is also one brother, E. F. Fowler of Cambridge.

As a weaver of this truth myself, I am absolutely certain I can give you such comfort and relief as you have never known. I beg of you for your own sake—to give me your name and address that I may prove what I say.

111 cigarettes
TURKISH
VIRGINIA
BURLEY

15 for 10
The AMERICAN TOBACCO CO.

C. B. Streeter

INTERIOR DECORATOR

11 years with Wm. Stern of Somerville

Paper Hanging and Ceiling Work

A SPECIALTY.

Foreign and Domestic Wall Papers

Work guaranteed

Orders promptly filled.

Residence 40 EMERSON STREET MEDFORD, MASS.

Office: Tel. Arlington 229
Residence: Tel. Mystic 1804-M

561 MASS. AVENUE, LEX. TEL. 830

Patented July 11, 1922

If you are RUPTURED

Don't go another day without a truss that you can depend on. One that you can wear night and day, one that is easy, comfortable and safe.

Warren's Elastic Truss, with patent self-adjusting center pads will appeal to you at a price. It gives instant relief and permanent support. Does not show through the clothing. Sent on trial. Single, $4.00. Double, $6.00.

As a weaver of this truth myself, I am absolutely certain I can give you such comfort and relief as you have never known. I beg of you for your own sake—to give me your name and address that I may prove what I say.

HERBERT A. WARREN

Warren's Elastic Truss

32 NASHUA ST. WOBURN, MASS.

Tel. Woburn 544-R

BEECHAM'S

Sweeten the Stomach PILLS

WE are certain that the courteous dignity with which we perform our duties appeals to our fellow townsmen. We render the proper service in a polite spirit.

There is not a shelter that does not find a family to adopt it as a home. Barns, sheds, stables, cellars, kitchens—every available room is now a family dwelling. Church services can no longer be held as every church is a vast refuge. Thousands and thousands live, die and are born in streets and alleys, the roads are full of refugee caravans. Never in history, has such a sight ever been witnessed, no human can give description of the awful situation existing there. The whole country is transformed in a tremendous ghetto, where boys and girls have nothing to wear, where parents are nearly naked, where never did Christmas and New Year bring less joy. Help must come immediately, it is given now a plenty, but plenty and plenty more is not enough. Poverty, hunger, death reign supreme. Anything in the line of clothing no matter how old, no matter how short, long or narrow or out of fashion is a God-send to these unfortunate, in a country where today a well dressed person feels ashamed of having good clothes. Clothes, clothes, more clothes are needed. Empty closets and attics, gather anything anywhere and send, funds, food or clothing to the Pan-Hellenic Relief Organization, 46 Winchester street, Boston, for prompt shipment across.

Let your holiday thoughts turn for a few moments at least towards the refugees of the near East. They need your action at this time, and America will surely not fail them.

L.B. SAVILLE
UNDERTAKER
418 MASS. AVE. PHONE ARL. 1634

STAR

WINDOW CLEANING CO.

Private residences our specialty.

We do all kinds of house cleaning.

Floors Waxed.

Tel. Arlington 2793-M

Arlington, P. O. Box 74

C. S. PARKER & SON, PRINTERS

SPECIAL NOTICE

Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank

At the Annual Meeting of the Corporation of the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank held December 20, 1922, the following named officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Charles W. Allen
Vice-Presidents—James P. Parmenter
Benjamin A. Norton, George Hill.

TRUSTEES

Chas. W. Allen Clarence A. Moore
Wilson D. Clark, Jr. M. Ernest Moore
William K. Cook Benjamin A. Norton
Edward S. Fessenden James P. Parmenter
John R. Foster Chester G. Peck
John H. Greene Harry G. Porter
George Hill Richard G. Rolfe
Henry Hornblower Arthur J. Wellington
John Lyons Daniel Wyman
Francis L. Maguire

Clerk of the Corporation,
Benjamin A. Norton

All the above named persons have accepted said offices and have duly qualified according to law.

The following named persons are the Officers of the Bank:

Henry S. Adams Joseph C. Holmes
Abbott Allen James O. Holt
Chas. W. Allen Henry Hornblower
W. Stuart Allen John G. Hutchinson
Edward A. Bailey John Lyons
James A. Bailey Francis L. Maguire
Wm. G. Bott, Jr. M. Ernest Moore
John G. Brickett Benjamin A. Norton
Wentworth C. Carr Elbert L. Chivell
Wilson D. Clark, Jr. Frank V. Noyes
William D. Clark, Jr. James P. Parmenter
William K. Cook Chester G. Peck
Howell Crosby Warren A. Peirce
Frederick W. Damon H. A. Phinney
Wm. D. Elwell Harry G. Porter
Edward S. Fessenden Ward G. Rolfe
John R. Foster George O. Rollin
Richard D. Greene Arthur J. Wellington
Henry W. Hayes Wm. E. Wood
George Hill Daniel Wyman
Frank W. Hodson.

Attest:
BENJAMIN A. NORTON, Clerk
Arlington, Mass., Jan. 8, 1923 12jan1w

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of John A. Lindsay, otherwise known as Augustus Lindsay, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Arthur J. Wellington, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his of-ficial bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex on the twenty-ninth day of January A. D. 1923, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing the citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of the citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this third day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.

F. M. ESTY, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of James E. Tracy, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased.

Whereas a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Mary A. Tracy, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her executors therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex on the twenty-ninth day of January A. D. 1923, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing the citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of the citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this sixth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three.

F. M. ESTY, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of John Henderson, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Margaret Henderson, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge in said County of Middlesex on the twenty-fourth day of January, A. D. 1923, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing the citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-ninth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

F. M. ESTY, Register.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PROBATE COURT.

Middlesex ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Barsom Bayentz, late of Arlington, in said County, deceased, intestate.

WHEREAS a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to Mahel F. Dean, of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the eighteenth day of January, A. D. 1923, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing the citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Arlington Advocate, a newspaper published in Arlington, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE F. LAWTON, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-seventh day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

F. M. ESTY, Register.

A. H. S. GLEE CLUB AND ORCHESTRA GIVE A MUSICAL COMEDY

Robbins Memorial Town Hall was filled twice on last Saturday by those interested in seeing our Arlington High School Glee Club and orchestra present the musical comedy, "College Days," written by Dodge and Dodge. The first performance was given in the afternoon for the scholars in the Grammar grades of the school, and others who cared to come, and in the evening the hall was filled with High school pupils, parents and friends.

The comedy was given for the benefit of the Music Fund, and Miss Grace Pierce, the music director in the schools, had the comedy in charge, assisted by Miss Harriet Pennell, the domestic science teacher, as advertising agent and business manager.

The young people of today are quite equal to doing anything that they undertake. They are keen observers, quick to respond and on the whole free from affectation, genuine, whole hearted and natural. All these are great assets when one wishes to appear before the footlights. These qualities have been noticeable at every public performance that the A. H. S. Glee and orchestra club have given for the past few years, which reflects credit not only on those who have taken part but on their directors. This naturalness is the spirit of the times that even twenty-five years ago was not in evidence.

The comedy is a bright one dealing as the title suggests, with college days. A young baseball hero, is accused of being traitor to his class and team. He allows this impression to be held in order to shield another, even to the breaking off of his engagement with the daughter of the professor of the college. Of course it ends satisfactorily and the tuneful song, "Tis a good old world," which air runs through the opera, is the atmosphere that permeates the entire comedy. There is but one scene, that of the campus of Brinkdale College, U. S. A. on the afternoon of May, 1917, but there are three acts. First in the afternoon, the second, two weeks later, and the third, morning of May, 1919.

The "actors" and "actresses" were in college togs and the entire performance went with a dash that kept the audience interested from the beginning to the end. The young people taking the principal parts are to be complimented upon their efforts, each of whom contributed to the success of the production. Brainard Hughes as "Tubby" was breezy and natural being in quite the right atmosphere for the part, his leading of the college cheering being especially so. Walter Alsen had what might be called the leading role—that of the college hero and played it well. The two leading ladies' parts were taken by Marcia Arnold and Miriam Hendrick and they were splendidly sustained as was also the character part of the Professor, impersonated by Chester Eaton, and that of the Dean of the college, Gertrude Dowdell.

Solo and duett numbers by these and the chorus work, all tuneful, made the comedy an interesting one, quite above the usual performance of amateurs.

Between the acts there were special features. Miss Marjorie Waite gave a Spanish dance, in costume; Irene Viano, a ballet, and Alice Devine, two character songs and dances. Each were heartily enjoyed.

Miss Louise Bacon was at the piano during the evening for these special numbers and the orchestra performed its part throughout the comedy with great acceptance. During the evening candy was sold. The cast and the musical numbers given, follow:

William Dean Coles, "Tabby"; Brainard Hughes, "Tubby"; John Harris, "Jack," catcher on the College team; Dorothy Dowdell, "Doris"; Daniel O'Conor, "Davy," pitcher on the College nine; Walter Alsen, "Dot," Prexy Smith's daughter; Dorothy Smith, "Dot"; Miriam Hendrick, Helen Jordan, Dot's pal; Miriam Hendrick as a corkscrew; Fred Brackett, Jim Fox, owner of the Town Pool Room; Francis Hodgeson, Professor Horace Greely Smith, "Prexy"; Chester Eaton, President of Brinkdale College.

Martha Baldwin Teale, "Baldy"; Dean of Women; Gertrude Dowdell, "Doris"; Fred Swift, "Toppy"; Robert Thompson, Charles Sweet, "Sweetie"; George McElhanan, Don Jewett, "Babe"; Curtis Forbes, Chorus of College Coeds and Men; Lois Armstrong, Carol Allen, Alice Baker, Fred Bennett, Emma Bourne, Marion Biske, Margaret Danakin, Helen Danakin, Marion Danakin, Esther Draper, Joseph Ennis, Emily Hickey, Agnes Holmes, George Kilroy, Helen Lyndon, Anthony Leger, Gertrude Morris, Florence Mahn, Corey Morash, Dorothy Ring, Evelyn Stryker, Elmer Schwamb, Margery Tinkham, Ruth Wadman, Elsie Williams.

Musical Numbers—Overture, Orchestra; Brinkdale, "Chorus"; "I'll Tell the World," "Dot and Davy"; "The Old Town Cat," "Mae" Chorus; "The Old Gold," "Dot and Davy"; "Rainbow Gold"; "Davy," "I'm Not as Young as I Used to Be"; "Prexy and Baldy"; "Let the Parson Tie the Knot," "Chorus"; Dance, Marjorie Waite; "The Life of a College Girl," Dot, Helen and Girls; Dance, Irene Viano; "Dorothy," "Davy"; "I'm Willing," Dot, Davy and Chorus; "The Language of the Flowers," Baldy and Girls; "Love's Way," Prexy and Baldy; "So Do I," "Davy Chorus"; "One in a Million," Helen Tubby and Chorus; "Brinkdale," Chorus; Song and Dance, Alice Devine; "Heroes of Brinkdale," Chorus; "Brinkdale," Chorus.

ARLINGTON BOY SCOUTS

The official inspection of Troop 6, Scoutmaster Wallace, by members of the Council, took place Thursday evening, January 4th, at the vestry of the Central Baptist Church. The troop made a fine appearance and was given a careful going-over by Commissioner Harold L. Frost and Major Willard. As a whole the troop was given a high mark of efficiency. When it came to picking the best appearing Scout of the troop the inspecting officers had a hard time. Four Scouts, Eagle Scout LaCasse, Scribe Taft, Eagle Scout Brown and Scout Anderson, stood above the rest of their mates and were lined up for a closer inspection. Even a rigid inspection of ears, necks and finger-nails failed to bring out a winner, so the four were given a short drill and a furin having your suit ready. You will find our tailoring service comprises promptness, efficiency, reasonable prices, excellent workmanship. Just give us an opportunity to demonstrate our ability. We'll both profit by it.

WE ARE NEVER BEHIND TIME

J. D. ROSIE

687 Mass. Ave. Arlington

Tel. 532-M

THOMPSON & ROACHE
COAL

Phones 2675-2634

ARLINGTON, MASS.

New England Sanitarium and Hospital

A Homelike Health Retreat on the Shore of Spot Pond in Middlesex Fells.

SURGICAL—MEDICAL—MATERNITY

Contagious, Tubercular, Mental and Nervous Diseases, not accepted.

Stoneham, Mass.

P. O. Address, Melrose, Mass.

Sound Fire Insurance in New England Mutual Companies

Saving 20% of your Insurance Cost

Incorporated

Abington Mutual	1856	Merrimack Mutual	1828
Cambridge	1833	Merchant &
Citizens	1846	Farmers	1846
Dorchester	1855	Middlesex	1826
Fitchburg	1847	So. Danvers	1829
Hingham	1826	Traders &
Holyoke	1843	Mechanics	1848
Lynn	1828	Worcester	1823

Represented by

GEORGE Y. WELLINGTON & SON, AGENTS

679 Mass. Avenue, Arlington

Tel. Conn.

ARLINGTON COAL CO.

Tel. Arlington 1100

41 Park Avenue

COAL AND WOOD

Lumber, Lime, Cement, Etc.

INSURANCE

Harvey E. Frost, 116 Milk St., Boston

SEE ME ON FIRE

Life, automobile, health, accident, liability, plate glass, workmen's compensation and all other kinds of insurance.

ARLINGTON REPRESENTATIVE

FLORENCE A. STORY

655 MASS. AVENUE

TEL. ARLINGTON 17-W

their inspection after which Scribe Taft was declared the winner over the others by a small margin and was presented with the pin so dearly coveted by all Scouts.

After the inspection several of the Scouts gave an exhibition of tying knots. There were a number of visitors present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Muller, and Troop Committeemen Brown and Spangler.

Troop 7, Scoutmaster Maguire, was given its official inspection Friday evening, January 5th, in the Old Town Hall, reporting with 27 out of 29 Scouts, a splendid showing. Commissioner Frost and Deputy Commissioner Edwards were the inspecting officers. The troop showed the effect of its intensive work during the past month, and was complimented on its appearance by the officials. Scout Schofield was awarded the pin for being the best appearing Scout of the troop.

Troop Committee Cochran, Jones and Marsters of Troop 2, Trinity Baptist Church, met recently and drew up a yearly program for the troop including besides the regular work of scouting, church activities, civic activities and the like. It is thought that other troop committees will soon follow suit.

Troop 3, Scoutmaster Alsen met in the vestry of the Central Baptist Church, Wednesday evening, January 3rd, and after the usual business had been disposed of was given a short marching drill by Mr. Hatch of the High school, who was formerly a drill-master in the U. S. A. This troop has begun its campaign for a full troop and promises to increase its number at least 25 per cent by Anniversary week. A number of the boys have already signified their intention of joining and will probably be taken in shortly.

On Saturday, January 6th, Patrol Leader Walter Finney and Assistant Patrol Leader Homer Collins took the Wolf Patrol on a hike to Camp Oak, Billerica. Four Scouts showed up besides the leaders, Scout Stockdale, Rider, Candidate Angus and Scribe Pierce. All the Scouts had skills and hiked over land from Lexington Park to camp. Dinner was cooked on individual fires, no Scout using any paper and but one match.

Troop 8, Scoutmaster Richardson, met Wednesday evening, January 3, in the vestry of the Congregational Church, and in spite of the bad weather only two Scouts were absent, one from sickness and one because he lived too far away. The troop had a short but sharp inspection and then studied bandaging under the Scoutmaster. Games wound up the evening. This troop is coming fast and is sure to be heard of later, although if you ask the boys they'll say they've made a bit of

Arlington Advocate

OFFICE
Fowle's Block, Mass. Avenue,
Arlington, Mass.

Published Every Friday By

C. S. PARKER & SON
Publishers

CHARLES S. PARKER ..... Editor
MISS GRACE PARKER ..... Assistant

Subscription $2.50. Single copies 6c

Arlington, January 12, 1923.

ADVERTISING RATES.
Price for one week. (Per inch) $1.00
85 cents per week afterwards.

One-half inch, 60 cents. 20 cents to continue.

Entered at the Arlington Station, Boston post office as second class matter.

SPELL OF WEATHER

We believe there is no reason to dispute the claim of our street department that the storms visiting this section at the close of last week and the beginning of this, caused more trouble than any other in previous years. When the plows had made paths after one heavy fall of snow, there came another larger mass, which the wind drifted badly, filling the paths in many places.

Then came a downpour of rain, followed by freezing weather, with the result that walking was a trying experience over the rough and solidly frozen snow. All this was followed by more snow, Tuesday night, but a mild temperature had somewhat softened the mass already on the ground, so making of real paths, by means of snow plows, was to a degree possible.

Starting in late November and continuing until now, we have had so far a winter that reminds older people of experiences in their youth, when weather of this sort was the rule, rather than the exception, during what are called the winter months, with a big fringe of winter weather at both ends.

We are pleased to be able to say that on both the steam and electric car lines, traffic was well maintained. We also compliment the street department on the expeditious manner in which the business centre was relieved of snow thrown to and piled on each side of the main thoroughfare by machines used in clearing car tracks.

This was not an easy task for the snow on Saturday drifted as fast as it fell and in some sections of the town the drifts were so high that it was impossible for a plow to go through them.

On the first day of January, we had a downpour of rain that practically cleared our streets of the quantities of snow that had previously fallen. On the following Wednesday night, came our big snow storm of the season, which continued through the day. Friday was a wonderful day, but Saturday found us again in the clutches of a storm, which continued intermittently through Sunday and Monday, until about noon, when the snow turned to rain. Tuesday morning was fair and bright, but late in the afternoon came another snow storm, and Wednesday morning found several inches added to what already had fallen. All through the day it continued to fall.

In Arlington, the task of removing the snow was difficult for on Monday the town teams are needed to collect ashes in certain parts of the town and so on through the week the collection of ashes and rubbish as well as the garbage made a complicated problem, but no town was better cared for than Arlington.

Superintendent George Ahern was on his job early and late and with his large crew of men, and on the main thoroughfares the conditions were not bad.

The quantities of snow and ice that accumulated on the houses and buildings made sad havoc, for when the rain came melting the snow and ice, there were such quantities on the roofs that it was impossible for it to be taken care of in the usual way, and many a ceiling and wall paper in the homes were damaged in some cases part of the ceiling fell. This was so in Sherburne block, in the store now occupied by the Arlington News Depot.

COLLECT YOUR MONEY

A statement received from Secretary of the Treasury Mellon regarding the maturity of the 1918 issue of war savings stamps is of peculiar interest to our readers just now, owing to the many thousands of dollars which were originally invested to assist our government in financing our operations in the World War. Particular emphasis is given to the fact that holders of war savings stamps are slow in presenting them for adjustment. Every one who purchased these stamps in 1918 and who still has them in his possession, should look them up and present them for adjustment without delay, for interest on these stamps ceased on January 1st. There is still opportunity for the reinvestment of these stamps in treasury savings certificates without loss of interest, providing this is done before January 15th. If treasury savings certificates are issued in exchange for the matured war savings stamps prior to January 15th, the certificates will bear date of January 1st, and no loss of interest will ensue.

Unregistered certificates may be presented for redemption or exchange at any money order post office, any Federal reserve bank or branch, while registered certificates can be redeemed or exchanged only at the post office where registered. Banking institutions generally are handling redemptions and exchanges of unregistered certificates for their customers and holders generally are urged to consult their banks or their postmasters and to make arrangements for the early presentation of any matured certificates in their hands.

Your postmaster or your banker will be glad to give you any assistance that you may need in completing this adjustment.

SENATOR CHARLES C. WARREN

LINES UP WITH THE DRY'S

In the Boston Sunday Herald, of January 7th, there was an article by Thomas Carens, one of Arlington's "boys" born and brought up in the town and where he attended the public schools. His articles are read with a great deal of interest, for he is well informed along all political matters, both of the state and nation. In this article he featured several Massachusetts legislators, in whom the public is interested, one especially so to Arlington, Senator Charles C. Warren, from this sixth Middlesex district.

Senator Warren is chairman of Legal Affairs Committee of the legislature, which gives him the power to pass on enforcement legislation. All bills relating to prohibition and its enforcement go first to the committee on legal affairs and of the four senators and eleven representatives assigned to that committee the days already claim a clear majority.

We quote the following from the article relative to Senator Warren:

"Senator Charles C. Warren of Arlington, chairman of the committee, is an outspoken dry, and Representative Louis L. Green of Cambridge, the House chairman, was a member of the sub-committee which drafted the state Volstead act last year. In addition to these two, the drys claim the support of Senators Carrick of Cambridge and Howard of Reading and Representatives Bateman of Winchester, Cotton of Lexington, Clemens of Wakefield and Gilmore of Melrose, or eight out of the total of fifteen committeemen."

According to Mr. Carens, the intense prohibitionists are already claiming victory in the first round of the battle which will be fought to make Massachusetts a bone-dry state.

Representatives from nineteen large cities in nineteen states of the middle west, representing commercial organizations in the several cities included in the list, went on record as approving the shipping bill now under consideration in Congress. It is an encouraging sign when any section of our country becomes fully awake to the fact that in the last analysis this country of ours is a unit; that no section can have its business activities enlarged without ultimate benefit to all; that hindering special development in a given locality is detrimental to the country as a whole. The convention alluded to, passed the following vote:

"The prosperity of the middle west is largely dependent on the sale abroad of its farm products, its live stock, and its manufactures and therefore on the development and extension of our foreign markets. Experience and reason alike teach us that an American merchant marine controlled by foreign nations, whose products compete with ours in foreign markets, can not be relied on as a means of developing our own foreign trade. Our agricultural, live stock and manufacturing interests have therefore a very direct and immediate financial interest in the immediate establishment of an American merchant marine. No practicable means as yet has been worked out or even suggested which will adequately insure the establishment of an American merchant marine without direct aid from the government."

ST. JAMES THEATRE

The play in which Mr. Giles will present the Boston Stock Company, at the St. James, this week is "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," by Frances Hodgson Burnett, whose first work, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," established her as one of the most thorough writers of the century. At the St. James will be the first presentation of this play in Boston in eleven years. "The Dawn of a Tomorrow" is a sincere, interesting, gripping drama in which one of the biggest principles of humanity is set forth in one of the most interesting phases of playwriting. Miss Bushnell will play the role of "Glad," a girl of the London streets, a big-eyed waif who has struggled with poverty and emerged with her trust and humor unimpaired. There is a quaint whimsicality in the character that redeems it from the ordinary traits of staginess. Walter Gilbert will have the role of the dandy and Mark Kent will be seen as Oliver Holt. There are excellent parts for the rest of the company, and there will be extras besides.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS

Officials at Quebec decline without thanks to return the little brass cannon captured at Bunker Hill, as requested by Boston's mayor.

Bills have been filed in the Mass. Legislature for the construction of a new bridge over Charles River to replace the present Harvard bridge.

The textile workers in Fall River, have voted in favor of a strike to enforce demand for a wage increase to war time prices.

Vessels arriving in Boston during the past week or more, report the worst storms on the Atlantic, the captains have experienced in recent years.

The Ku Klux Klan seems to be a secret society organized to assume governmental functions. For this reason the government should smash it.

The Reparation Commission in session in Paris, France, on Tuesday, voted it, had found a "wilful default" in Germany's coal delivery to France.

There may be a general regret at the course France is pursuing in the reparations controversy, but one can but admire the courage of the administrative power.

Rural credits legislation has displaced the pending ship subsidy measure in Congress. This is likely to result in no action on the ship bill during present session.

The committee of Congress investigating charges filed against Attorney-General Daugherty, has reported finding no ground for the accusation and urging dismissal of the same.

The advance of French troops into a new section of the Rhur district was followed on January 10, by an order from President Harding for immediate withdrawal of U. S. Army force stationed there.

A new kind of caravan composed of five little French caterpillar autodesert from Algeria, on the Sahara desert from Algeria (on the north coast of Africa to French West Africa, making the 2000-mile trip from Tugurt to Timbuctoo in 21 days.

The renaming of Maverick Square in East Boston by the city government, has met strenuous protest from the leading Boston papers.

Maverick Square has borne this name since the year 1833, which is as long as it has existed. The name itself goes back to the first years of the settlement of Boston.

That Great Britain wants a fair business settlement of her five billion dollar war debt to the United States on such terms as will produce the least possible disturbance in the trade relations of the two countries, is the statement of Stanley Baldwin, the British chancellor of the exchequer, before the joint meeting of the British and American debt funding commissions.

Deaths

BURKE—In Arlington, Jan. 9, Michael F. Burke of Boston, aged 70 years.

MADDOKS—In Arlington, Jan. 7, Ethel Ruby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Maddox, 201 Rhinecliff street, aged 2 months 8 days.

BACHEL—In Arlington, Jan. 5, Miss Ada M. Bachel of 223 Mountain avenue, aged 52 years, 6 months, 17 days.

MY DARLING RETA

A wonderful gift once came to me. Which never with money was bought. The longer it was mine the more its delight. For the strings of my heart were caught. The fairest of blessings, darling Reta, it was you.

MRS. DELIA SHANAHAN, 52 Lewis Ave., Arlington, Mass.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Eliza Fowler, widow of the late James W. Fowler and family take this means of expressing their appreciation to their friends who, during the illness of Mr. Fowler and at the time of his death, expressed their sympathy in lovely floral tokens and notes of condolence.

Mrs. Eliza Fowler and Family.

Jan. 9, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan. 10, 1923.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many expressions of sympathy given us in the loss of our boy, also to the friends who sent presents and books to him. Christmas, at the hospital, and helped to make his last Christmas a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Learned.

Arlington, Jan

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Mrs. Charles Croff has been the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Cartmill, Danvers, Mass.

Mrs. Mae Harling is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Vert Farnham, and daughter, Lydia, from Belgrade, Maine.

Mrs. Jack Burns is at home, from Carp Hospital, where she underwent an operation at Copp Hospital, where she underwent an operation.

Mrs. LePage and Erma Croff gave a successful entertainment of songs and readings at the Methodist Church, at Danvers, on Tuesday evening, January 9th.

The friends of Mrs. John Wheatley will be glad to hear that she is recovering from a recent attack of grippe.

Mrs. LePage is coaching an original pageant, "The Pilgrim," which will be given at the Methodist Church, some time during the next month.

Rev. R. J. Davis will preach on "Responsibility," at the morning service of the Baptist Church, Sunday. "How to Begin a New Life," will be the sermon subject at the evening service.

The A. F. G. Brotherhood met Wednesday evening, at the Baptist Church. Dr. Samuel LePage gave an interesting address on his trip to Germany. A social hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

The Kenney Club met at the home of Mrs. Alice Maynard Daniels street, on Wednesday evening, January 10th. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss N. M. Brown. A social hour followed.

The next meeting of the Friday Social Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold L. Stratton, 159 Apolieton street, on Friday, January 19th. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Smith and Mrs. Charles Brown.

The Women's Missionary Guild of the Park Avenue Congregational Church, will hold their meeting at the church next Tuesday afternoon, January 16th, at 2:30. Mrs. C. F. Stott will speak on India. A social hour with tea will follow. All the ladies of the church are invited.

At the Sunday morning service at the Methodist Church, Rev. Samuel LePage will preach on "The Unbolted Door." There will be special music. The subject for the evening's service will be "With Zeal and Flame." The Junior choir will furnish the music.

The Original T. T. C.'s met Friday afternoon, at the home of Helen and Frances Irwin, 28 Washington avenue. During the meeting the usual business was discussed also plans for raising money in the future, after which refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Ada M. Baich, daughter of the late Moses Phippen and Adela Lauriat Baich, passed away January 5th, at her home, 223 Mountain avenue, aged eighty years. The deceased made her home with a sister. The funeral was held Monday, at Mt. Auburn chapel, the devotional services being conducted by Rev. Charles Tabor Hall, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Arlington. The burial was in Mt. Auburn.

Rabbi Harry Levi of the Commonwealth Temple Israel Reformed, Boston, will preach at the Park Avenue Congregational Church, Sunday, in exchange with Rev. Harold L. Stratton. Rabbi Levi is well known through Greater Boston, since he has been doing such admirable work in the Greater Boston Federation of Churches. The choir of his church furnished the music at the dramatizing of "Jeremiah," last winter. In the evening the services will consist of special songs and hymns. Rev. H. L. Stratton will preach.

The Arlington Heights Study Club met Tuesday, January 9th, at the home of Mrs. Herbert A. Snow, 59 Claremont avenue. It was the second meeting on Germany. There were three splendid papers. The first on "The Art of Germany; the Munich School, its influence on American art," by Mrs. F. A. Patterson, who illustrated her talk by prints of paintings of the artists of that period; the second by Mrs. C. H. Roberts, who spoke on "The Literature of Germany;" and the third by Mrs. E. L. Shinn, who told "What Bach and other old German masters have done for the music world." Mrs. Shinn and Miss Louise Bacon, each played selections from Bach, which added much to the enjoyment and interest of the afternoon. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and tea served by Mrs. James H. Kieran and her assistants. The next meeting is January 23rd.

Last Saturday evening, January 6th, the home of Miss Florence Poole, 59 Dow avenue, was the scene of an attractive party in honor of her twenty-third birthday. Guests from Somerville and Winchester, were present with many Arlington friends. Many attractive gifts of flowers, candy, and books were showered on Miss Poole by friends. The rooms where the guests were entertained were attractively decorated in purple and yellow and the table, from which a buffet luncheon was served, carried out the color scheme in paper decorations of the colors. A birthday cake with yellow frosting and purple candles held the center of the table. Novelty favors marked the places of the guests. There was special music for dancing, and many games were played. Among the guests present were, the Misses Mabel Morrissey, Evelyn Tappan, Beulah Bowering and Suzan Brown; Messrs. Frank Carlson, William Waters, Ernest Wilshire, Arthur O'Leary and Edward Farrell.

The annual meeting and supper of Park Avenue Congregational Church, was held Tuesday evening, January 9th. An excellent supper was served in the vestry of the church. Mrs. George Clark, (chairman), Mrs. William A. MacNeal, Mrs. Charles Brown and Mrs. Harold Smith. Mrs. Frank Garrett, assisted by Mrs. Oscar Schnetzer and Mrs. Harold L. Stratton, was in charge of the tables and serving. After the supper the meeting was called to order by the clerk, Mr. Roy B. Smith. Mr. Joseph C. Holmes was elected moderator. The records were given by the clerk, then the entire congregation stood in silence in memory of Miss May Brigham. Mrs. Cyril D. Jurro and Deacon Fernando Miles, who have passed out during the year, after which the annual reports were read in the following order:

Treasurer, Standing committee, Church committee, Sunday School Superintendent, Music committee, Original T. T. C.'s, William Bradford Society and Women's Guild. An adjourned meeting is to be held on January 25th, to consider business that could not be taken up, at this time, such as by-laws, and other matters. The following officers were elected: Mr. Edward Nicoll, Mr. William G. Hallock and Mr. George G. Wood, deacons for three year term; Mr. Harry I. Tinkham to fill the remaining term of Mr. Fernando Miles, who recently died; Miss Margaret Henderson, Mrs. Foster Doane, Mrs. Bert S. Currier and Mrs. Harry I. Tinkham, deacons; Mr. Charles S. Brown, clerk; Rev. Arthur E. Ward, and Foster Doane, church committee; Messrs. Harvard Bardwell, Harry Tinkham and Herbert A. Snow, music committee; Messrs. Charles T. Parsons, Bert S. Currier, Edmund W. Byram, J. Herbert Mead, George H. Higgins, Jr., Albert D. Cutler, standing committee; Frank R. Turner, collector; Joseph C. Holmes, treasurer and Mr. T. C. Wallace, Sunday School Superintendent.

Master Otis Wentworth Learned, son of Samuel G. and Avonie C. Learned of 77 Tanager street, Arlington Heights, died in the Children's Hospital, Boston, on Friday, January 5th, after an illness of four and one-half months.

He was operated on August 28th for appendicitis, at the Moore Hospital, Brockton, and shortly after abscesses developed, also a fistula of the intestines. After five weeks he was brought home for a while, but recovery being slow, he was taken to the Children's Hospital, for treatment. An X-ray showed abscesses on the liver, for which he was operated upon November 18th.

He seemed on the road to recovery, although improvement was slow, and on December 19th, he had a transfusion of blood, his mother giving him a half pint of her blood. He commenced to improve so much, that shortly after Christmas he was taken off the dangerous list, but the end came suddenly, shortly after breakfast, on January 5th.

Otis was born on February 23, 1911, in Arlington Heights. He attended the Locke school and passed the fifth grade last June. He was of a bright, cheery disposition, uncomplaining.

Funeral services were held at his parents' home, on Monday, January 8th, at 3 p. m., Rev. Charles Taber Hall of St. John's Episcopal Church, officiating, during the services, Miss Josephine Learned, aunt of Otis sang "There's a Friend for Little children," and "Safe in the arms of Jesus." The floral tributes were many and beautiful and banked about the casket and room. Among the tokens was a basket of beautiful flowers from the small children of the neighborhood. The Sunshine Club and Ladies' Auxiliary of the Heights, sent beautiful tokens. Interment was in the Otis Wentworth lot in Monroe Cemetery, Lexington.

DEDICATION OF CALVARY METHODIST CHURCH BEING HELD THIS WEEK

The program arranged to extend through this week, incident to the dedication of Calvary Methodist Church, has been carried out in detail in spite of the weather.

The first important event was on Wednesday evening, when there was the Roll Call in the vestry, which was attended by two hundred. The vestry was decorated in streamers of green and white crepe paper and the tables were lighted with green candles in ornamental candle sticks. This feature was in charge of Mrs. A. M. Simmons, who, with an efficient committee, served a bountiful supper at 6:30.

There was a special table for the invited guests. At this table were seated the minister, Rev. Archiver J. Strait and wife; Dr. J. Franklin Knotts, who spoke on "The relation of the church to business;" Rev. and Mrs. Garfield Morgan, the former who spoke on "Deep Calleth to deep;" Harold Clark Durrell, who gave a brief history of Calvary Methodist Church; Albert H. Morris, the toastmaster, who filled the office with dignity; also Mr. Carl S. Nelson and wife, the former heard in baritone selections, accompanied at the piano by Miss Beulah Linfield, who also occupied a seat at the guest table. These exercises made a fitting opening to the remainder of the program, which was continued on Thursday evening when there was a Young People's Rally in which all the young people's societies of the town were invited to participate and listen to the address by Rev. Henry H. Crane, D. D. of Malden, who spoke on "The greatest game in the world."

This Friday evening will occur the fellowship meeting and on Sunday will come the real dedication exercises, beginning at 10:30, with preaching by Rev. James E. Coons, D. D., superintendent of the Lynn district. Dedication at 3 o'clock. Selections by the Apollo quartet; baptism of children by Bishop Ed.

Partridge's
QUALITY
Catering

Food Shop
Service
Tel. Lex. 840

Trade Mark

A FULL LINE OF

Mince and Pumpkin Pies, Pound Cake, Angel Cake, Cream Puffs, Eclairs, Fancy Candies, Nuts, Dates and Fruit. Ice Cream and Fancy Ices.

All kinds of cooking and baking to order.

We make our own Bakery Goods and Ice Cream in Lexington from the best materials obtainable.

We would appreciate your order. Prompt home delivery.

30 Year's Experience

IVERS L. WETHERBEE

WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER

Formerly with A. Stowell & Co., Boston

High grade watch and clock repairing. Special attention given to ladies wrist watches, also French, English and American clocks. Money back guarantee. Pre-war prices.

101 TREMONT STREET, Paddock Building, Room 1116, BOSTON

Over Woodward's Drug Store.

Telephone Dewey 2718-M

TOWN TOPICS

By R. Walter Hilliard

TOWN TOPICS

YOU say you love her and that you'd do anything in the world to insure the eternal happiness of her life. Well one thing that you can do to prove it is to insure your life.

Hardy Catering Co.

TELEPHONE ARLINGTON 77 or 78

We are always ready to handle all lines of catering. Weddings and Afternoon Teas a specialty.

Note the change in prices of Ice Cream. Quality the Same

Ice Cream Delivered — 80cts a quart, $1.50 2 Quarts, $2.00 gallon

Special rates for Lodges or Large Parties.

Our Own Make

ASSORTED CHOCOLATES

5 Pound Box

$3.25

Blake's

Arlington

Lexington

Water Damage Insurance

CAUSED BY

Freezing and Many Other Causes.

RUSSELL & FAIRFIELD

99 MILK ST.,

BOSTON,

MASS.

Phone Main 5020

C. S. PARKER & SON - Tel. Arlington 141

win H. Hughes and sermon by Bishop Hughes, followed by the dedication of the church. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, the Mendelssohn Singers will give a program and there will be an address by Rev. Elmer A. Leslie, Ph. D.

ARLINGTON GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The Girl Scout Council met with Mrs. Walton Sears, on Tuesday, January 9th. The business meeting was followed by a talk by Miss Dorothy Dean, on, "A Camping Trip in Canada." She told of what Scouting did for a summer colony of young girls and the remarkable community spirit of doing for others displayed. Tea was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Frank P. Sibley, the Y. D. war correspondent, will speak on the following subject: "Why I Believe in the Scout Movement," at Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston street, Boston, Tuesday evening, January 23rd, at 8 o'clock. In a recent address, Mr. Sibley said, "I wonder if you realize that in the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, and other organizations of that type, lies almost the only hope for this country? I don't like to be a wet blanket or a knocker, but I am badly discouraged over our present state of affairs, and you can't do too much for these organizations." No charge for admission. No appeal for funds. Any interested are cordially invited to attend.

So many demands for a repetition of the New Year's "Dansant" have been received that the Girl Scouts' Council will run another "Dansant" on the afternoon of February 22nd, from 2:30 to 6 p. m., with the same orchestra and good time.

EAST ARLINGTON

The Camp Fire Girls held their regular weekly meeting, at the Trinity Baptist Church, with Miss Lillian Foss, guardian.

The date of the Ladies' Guild supper, of the Church of Our Savior, has been changed from January 31, to January 24th.

On Thursday evening, January 11th, the Men's Club held the annual election of officers at the parish rooms of the Church of Our Savior.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson is a patient at Symmes Arlington Hospital, where she was operated upon Monday, for a minor operation. Her wide circle of friends will be pleased to know that she is making satisfactory gain toward recovery.

This evening the second Friday evening meeting will be held at the Church of Our Savior. There has been planned a series of weekly meetings at this church to which all members and friends of the congregation, are invited to attend.

The prayer meeting of the Trinity Baptist Church was held under the direction of the Women's Circle on Wednesday evening, January 10, instead of on Friday evening, the regular night, since the congregation of the church will take part in the "Good Fellowship Service," at the Methodist Church, on invitation of the church.

The Ladies' Guild of the Church of Our Savior gave a whist party Wednesday evening, for the entertainment of the boys at the Sailor's Haven in Charlestown. There was a large number present and the members of the Guild felt repaid for their efforts when they saw how much the boys enjoyed the simple program presented. Refreshments were served.

The services at the Trinity Baptist Church, on Sunday, January 7, were well attended in spite of the cold weather. Rev. James E. Norcross, the new pastor of the church, commenced his work on that date. The church choir furnished well rendered selections. Mr. Norcross made a pleasant impression on his congregation and delivered a most interesting sermon, which was thoroughly appreciated by those present. In the evening communion was observed, and Mrs. William A. Corcoran sang in her well known pleasant manner, "What are these, that are arrayed," by O. B. Brown. The pastor gave an address on different phases of church work and service.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh I. Glynn of 74 Freeman street, presented a pretty picture on Saturday, January 6th, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Glynn. Promptly at seven o'clock, the guests were seated at dinner, the spacious table being most attractive with floral decorations of pink roses and lighted candles. Mrs. Herbert Gillman was the guest of honor, it also being her birthday. During the evening, Mrs. Glynn was presented with a mahogany sewing table and Mrs. Gillman received a silver steak platter. Dancing was enjoyed for a time, the remainder of the evening being devoted to bridge. The highest honors were won by Mrs. Carl Blaser and Mr. Gillman.

PROFESSIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rosette LePage, teacher of dramatic arts, lyric, elocution, pantomime and voice. Coacher of plays. Telephone Arlington 2076-W for appointments.

Mrs. Alta E. Evans, graduate of Emerson School of Oratory will receive pupils for elocution instruction at 56 Palmer street. Tel. Arlington 2466-W.

Charter No. 1186. Reserve District No. 1.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF THE

ARLINGTON NATIONAL BANK
AT ARLINGTON,
IN THE STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS,
at the close of business on December 29, 1922.

RESOURCES.

Loans and <sup>dis-</sup> counts including redis-	$414,460.26 counts
Overdrafts, secured	$529.00
U. S. Government securities owned Deposited to secure circulation. (U.

THE WHITE STORE

William D. Wanzer
784 Mass. Ave.
corner Jason Street
Arlington, Mass.

Choice Groceries. Specialties and Fruits
Hatchet White and Gold Products

Imperial Print and Tub Butter, varieties of real Cheese, Reliable Fresh Eggs, Home Boiled and Baked Ham

A Quality Store
Your Patronage Solicited

CHRISTMAS CLUB

JOIN NOW
FOR 1923

Arlington Five Cents
Savings Bank

Massachusetts Avenue
Corner Pleasant Street

MASON and BUILDER
JOBPING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO
ESTIMATES ON NEW WORK
GARAGES A SPECIALTY

WM. A. CANN
40 Amsden St. Arlington
Telephone Arlington 418-J

F. Holden Smith, V. M. D.
VETERINARIAN

Office: 14 Daniels St., Arlington, Mass.
Office Hours By Appointment
Telephone Arlington 10

Dr. W. M. Kingman
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
637 Mass. Ave., Arlington Phone: Art. 2884

FIREPLACE
DAMPERS
Walter S. Jardine & Sons Co.
ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

ARLINGTON
BOARD OF TRADE

R. WALTER HILLIARD
President
WM. C. WATSON
Vice-President
FRANK Y. WELLINGTON
Treasurer
NORMAN R. WILLARD
Secretary
DIRECTORS
Elliott R. Barker Andrew W. Freeman
Edward L. Colby D. W. Grannan
H. E. Connell James H. Jones
W. H. Phillips

Meets first Tuesday in G. A. R. Hall, 370 Mass. Ave., at 8 o'clock P. M.

L. M. Dolloff
Dealer in

DAIRY PRODUCTS
1068 Mass. Ave., Arlington

REAL ESTATE
HOUSES TO RENT

GREAT JANUARY SALE
Men's Women's and Children's cashmere hose greatly reduced.
Sheets, Pillow Slips, Towels of all kinds. Unbleached Cotton, Shirting
Madras and Gingham. All reduced to less than cost.

E. R. DRUKER
Dry Goods Store
1314 Massachusetts Ave.
Legal Stamps McCall Patterns
Telephone 1202-R

SLATE AND ASPHALT ROOFING
Done at reasonable rates.
Also all kinds of Jobbing.
J. L. A. CHELLIS COMPANY
P. O. Box 11, Arlington, Mass.

Sept 13W

MR. AND MRS. W. K. HUTCHINSON ENTERTAIN THE EMPLOYEES OF WALTER K. HUTCHINSON COMPANY

The employees of the Walter K. Hutchinson Company, from the Back Bay, Arlington, Arlington Heights, Lexington, Medford and Winchester stores and the Boston wholesale store, had a merry time on Monday evening, in Associates Hall, Arlington, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson.

It was a reunion, birthday and farewell party combined, and in all respects it was a great success, for despite the weather conditions, a large majority of the employees were present.

Relative to the birthday, it was Walter K. Hutchinson, Jr.'s, birthday and the employees remembered him with a gift of a set of military brushes. There was also a large birthday cake, which Walter, Jr., cut during the evening.

As to the farewell part of the party it was a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson, who start this week for their southern home to spend the remainder of the season.

Associates Hall never contained a happier company, than that of Monday evening. Dancing, an entertainment, greeting old friends and a spread contributed to the enjoyment of the evening. The entertainment numbers were attractive. Miss Helen Kenna, talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kenna, the former manager of the Back Bay store, gave dances; Forest Young, manager of the Winchester store, sang a group of songs; and Miss Poirier of the Center store, entertained with dances; and Mr. Meagher of the Back Bay store, did a cake walk. William Coleman of the Center store, contributed songs.

The music was furnished by an orchestra composed of the talented sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson. The Hardy Catering Company furnished buffet luncheon during the evening, and there was general dancing to round out the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as a hockey player, being a member of the Boston Athletic Association team. He is a musician as is also his brother, Walter.

Mr. Hutchinson, senior, is an example of what thrift and enterprise will do. He started business in a small way, but by energy and push he is now the owner of a chain of stores and has an important place in the commercial world, of not only Arlington, but throughout New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have an interesting family of sons with one daughter. All the sons are popular. "Jack," the older son of the family, has won an enviable reputation in the athletic world, especially as

DODGE LIMOUSINE FOR HIRE

Shopping $2 Touring $2.50
$2.50 per hour Careful Driver
JOSEPH L. ZURETTI
Lexington 830

Ye Paul Revere
Tavern

LEXINGTON

Under New Management

Special 50 cent noon lunches are drawing big local trade.
Breakfast and Supper also served.
Only the best of food used.
Steak and Chicken dinners a specialty.

Come once and you will come always.

Rooms by day or week.

J. E. COYLE, Proprietor.
TELEPHONES
Lexington 818 and 210.

WOOD FOR SALE

Good Maple Hard Wood also Oak and Birch $18.00 to $20.00 a cord.
Sawed any length.

RYDER'S STOCK FARMS

Phone Lex. 351, Lexington, Mass.

Notary Public - Justice of the Peace

James O. Credle

Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law

550 Mass. Ave., Room 3

Cambridge, Mass.

39 Court St., Room C

Boston, Mass.

Residence, Grove St., Lexington Heights.

If you cannot find the Phone Number

Call Information:

Tel. Lex. 746-M
DANIEL A. GORMAN, JR.
Contractor and Builder
Repairing and Jobbing promptly attended to
Lexington Patronage Solicited

3 SUNNY KNOLL AVE., LEXINGTON

Robert Morison

Watch and Clockmaker

JEWELRY REPAIRING

Formerly with Shreve, Crump & Low Co. and Bielow, Kennard Co. B. St.

French, Carriage, Hall and Mantel Chimes

Clocks Repaired. High Grade Watch-work a specialty.

15 Waltham St. Lexington, Mass.

FOR SALE

Maple Seasoned Wood and White

Pine Kindling

WANTED

Light Trucking and Expressing.

JAMES J. BURTON, JR.

Grant Street, Lexington, Mass.

P. FERRI

Florist and Nurseryman

Fruit trees, shrubs, ferns $1, value $2.

Jerusalem cherry plants value $1.50,

50cts. F. O. B. Greenhouse.

Arcadia Ave of Bow St. E. Lexington

Tel. Lex. 212-1

Chester L. Blakely, M. D. V.

(Veterinarian)

Graduate of Harvard 1898

37 Hancock St., Lexington, Mass.

'PHONES:

016-L Lexington 018-J Mystic

BARREDOCK BREEDING COCKERELS

REASONABLE PRICES

Roasting Chickens killed to order.

E. W. Van Deusen, 150 Woburn St., Lex.

Tel. Lex. 192-M

Reo Speed Wagon For Hire

Loads from 1 to 1½ tons. Delivered any where any time.

Sunday and holiday parties a specialty. Ball teams or band parties. Competent driver.

Popular prices. Tel. Lexington

192-W or write Lock Box No

47, Lexington, Mass.

WM. M. AQUARO

Custom Tailor

4 Depot Sq., Lexington

Cleansing Pressing and Repairing Promptly Done

Tel. 416-W. Residence 259-W

J. W. LEARY

Night and Day Taxi Service

23 Waltham St. Lexington

Tel. Lexington 503-W

JOHN HAYNES HOLMES GIVES
STIRRING ADDRESS AT ARL-
INGTON'S FORUM

John Haynes Holmes gave a stirring Forum address Sunday afternoon in the Town Hall. He said he had returned from Europe pessimistic, feeling that Europe was nearing disintegration. At first, he could hardly talk of his trip but after gaining courage to compare with the experiences of others, he found that his friends had come to the same conclusion. He believed that nothing could be more important to America than the future of Europe. Many American people are content and feel that there need be no concern if all is well here, but the experience of the war taught that Europe and America are linked together and though we feel that we are sufficient unto ourselves, the passing of Europe will have its effect on America. Important things have happened in Europe this week. The Entente is smashed, and France has entered on a course of action which means her destruction and the destruction of the civilization of Europe. The terror of Europe today is one of the blackest experiences of history.

He said "England didn't interest me. The war had not touched it enough but conditions were extraordinary in the rest of Europe. Everybody was busy. Restaurants and hotels were very active. One could buy wonderful meals in Moscow, where everything was the worst. People have returned from Europe, because of the good hotel conditions, saying that everything was all right but the more I traveled the more depressed I felt. Berlin was worse than Paris, Vienna worse than Berlin and Moscow worse than Vienna. Moscow is a wreck, shaken as it were by a great convulsion, headed toward social and material disintegration. Without any prejudice against the Soviets or alarm at the Bolsheviks, the material appearance of the country itself was sufficient to guide you to this conclusion. The streets were torn up, buildings gone to pieces, the people arrayed in extraordinary costumes, fifty per cent of the women as well as the men were without shoes and stockings. The same phenomenon was found everywhere, repairing is not done anywhere. The railroads are running more slowly and more slowly.

Even in Paris these conditions are apparent. I was amazed at the shabbiness of the Palace of Versailles. The lovely fountain was lying on the ground. The matchless palace was no longer fit to be seen by the general public and there were no longer men, money or public morale to keep it up. But this material disintegration was at its worst in Russia. Comparing Vienna and Berlin before the war with my impression today, I was horrified to find such a tremendous decline in my lifetime. But the currency condition was the best barometer of the real social conditions. In England, though living was high, money had some value, but in Paris it had only half its previous value, while in Germany it was worse, in Vienna still worse, and in Moscow, you thought of nothing but money. I arrived in Berlin two weeks after the assassination of Rathenau and found the excitement over, but the German mark had gone to pieces with the death of one of the greatest minds in Europe. While his death many have not been responsible the two things were simultaneous. In Germany they talked in terms of hundreds, in Vienna, in terms of thousands, in Russia, in terms of millions. A glass of lemonade in the Soviet country costs one million roubles. I had the delightful experience of buying anything I wanted with an American dollar. I could afford anything, live anywhere, eat anything. My wife and friend and myself had a most luxurious meal for less than $1.25.

If the present process is allowed to go on, if we stand with folded hands, there will be no middle class. The present high class junk shops show how they are living, by gradually selling their belongings. As they said, "Selling little by little until all is sold, then the jig is up." A Viennese friend entertaining a guest for dinner had to go out to sell some china before the meal could be bought. In Vienna you cannot buy anything until ten or eleven o'clock, till you get the rate of exchange for the day. Berlin is packed, aliens living like millionaires. In August there were 400,000 in Vienna, all feeding on the carcasses of the unhappy people. There is a colony of English in Germany, men unemployed in their own country, living on the unemployed done from England, like princes in this unhappy country.

The laboring class is not suffering most. They can weather the storm, because of the power of their organization and the relations they are able to maintain in their currency. Herr Sessenbach, a man of culture and education is the Gompers of Germany, a complete master of German labor conditions. Every Saturday representatives decide the wages for the following week, from the valuation of the money. There are many opportunities for capital and labor to get together. The laborer keeps the wolf from the door, but the real sufferer is the middle class. In Russia, it has disappeared altogether by slow process of extinction, colonies of thousands living in misery. This means the disappearance of all culture, only the middle class maintain it. In Moscow they are begging the return of artists for they realize with art their soul is going. An old friend, Adolph Harnack, a German professor, begged me to send twenty-five Greek New Testaments when I got to New York. His students no longer have text books. Culture is going.

Become
A Customer at This Store
Because
We Have Merchandise
That Has Merit

Boys School Shoes
Girls School Shoes
"Co-operative" for Men and
"Edmonds" Footfitters

Daniel Green Comfy Slippers

BUY RUBBERS NOW

GEORGE H. RICE

618 Mass. Ave., Arlington Centre

Why Buy Your Lumber Out of Town?

We Can Give Immediate Service On

LUMBER
OF ALL KINDS Including

FRAMES
LATH
R. C. & W. C. SHINGLES
ASPHALT SHINGLES
CLAPBOARDS
CLAPBOARD & NOVELTY SIDING
CYPRESS FINISH
E. A. PINE FINISH
N. C. PINE FINISH
MOULDINGS
GUTTERS
STORM DOOR STOCK
CELERY BOARDS
KILN DRIED FLOORS
UPSON BOARD
SHEET ROCK
MASON'S SUPPLIES
LALLY COLUMNS
CEDAR POSTS

GEO. W. BLANCHARD & CO.
24 Water St., Arlington Arl. 434

A LITTLE HOME

IN THE COUNTRY
with a garden, some shubbery and trees, perhaps a garage—could you ask for anything more ideal? And you can buy such a home on term.
See me about it today

R. WALTER HILLIARD
REAL ESTATE
673 Mass. Ave. Arlington

For a Good Car or a Good Tire
F. A. EDWARDS MOTOR CO.
791 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE, ARLINGTON
DURANT and STAR CARS
Seiberling Cord Tires

Flour and Shortening have advanced 30%

We still sell Bread at old price
13 cents

1½ lb. Loaf not 22 oz.

Have you heard about our Special Sale on High Class Homemade Candies every Saturday. Come and see us.

We thank you for past favors.

N. J. HARDY
Baker and Confectioner

In moral conditions, you find two extremes, the streets infested with street walking women on the one hand and on the other, little groups of young men withdrawing from the world to live the life of the Franciscan monk of old. Hatred is everywhere rampant. The Germans hate the French even more than they hated the English at the close of the war, and will rise to fight them, I fear said Mr. Holmes, with their bare hands, if conditions continue. The hate is strongest against the Jew, any Jew holding office is in danger of assassination. This pitiable condition does not mean revolution, or vast social upheaval, there isn't energy enough left in the Socialist and Communistic movement.

Reparation would be easy if there was any sanity left, but France has gone mad, no more than any other country, but her strategic position is more important.

This is going on to the end, starvation of culture and the middle class until they disappear. You will not know it. People then living didn't realize the disintegration of Rome. Unless great things are done here, we will see the passing of western civilization. We have the means to help the moral prestige. Have we the will to sacrifice?"

Rev. Harold L. Stratton, minister of Park Avenue Congregational Church, was the chairman of the afternoon. On January 21st, there will be a legislative conference by the club at Robbins Memorial Town Hall, when pending legislation will be discussed by public speakers, and on February 4th, Rabbi Wise will talk on "Americanization True and False."

ARLINGTON HIGH SCHOOL HOCKEY TEAM BALKED BY THE WEATHER

The boys of the High school ice hockey team are having a hard time getting started, the weather conditions being very much against them. All the games thus far have had to be postponed. On last Saturday afternoon the boys were all set for a game, having worked hard to clear off a place on Spy Pond, but Saturday morning the game was called off, the other team claiming that they had had no chance for practice. The boys are going good and have an outfit that will remind the followers of this line of sport of the golden days. The boys are being coached by "Brainy" Bower and he is well pleased with the showing thus far. What the boys need is some good stiff practice games before the league series in order to get a good tryout against fast opponents.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed from Ober Sletten to the Lexington Co-operative Bank, dated May 13, 1919, and recorded with Middlesex South District Registry of Deeds, Book 420, Page 496, for breach of the condition of the said mortgagee to pay for the payment of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinabove described on Thursday, the Eighth day of February, 1923, at four thirty o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises described in said mortgagee's deed, to wit:

The land in Lexington, being Lot 35 on Part A of a plan in two parts of Oakmont Park, Lexington, Middlesex, Massachusetts, being the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinabove described on Thursday, the Eighth day of February, 1923, at four thirty o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgagee and thereon substantially described as follows:

The property will be sold subject to neighborhood restrictions set forth on said plan and to unpaid taxes if any there are.

Two hundred dollars ($200.00) will be required to be paid at the time and place of sale, balance in ten days thereafter.

LEXINGTON CO-OPERATIVE BANK, Mortgagor.

Amidon & Bicknell, Solicitors.

Boston, Mass.

12Jan3w

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the subscriber has been duly appointed executor of the will of Henry H. Tyler, late of Lexington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, testate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs.

All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to

EDWARD L. TYLER, Executor.

(Address) Lexington, Mass.

December 21, 1922. 29deg3w

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the subscriber has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Nehemiah H. Outer, late of Arlington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased, intestate, and has taken upon himself that trust by giving bond, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are hereby required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to IRVING F. CARPENTER, Admin.

(Address) 18 Tremont St., Boston, Mass.

Dec. 30, 1922. 5Jan3w

MORTGAGEE'S SALE

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Ober Sletten and Beatrice G. Sletten to Frederick G. Jones, dated June 20, 1918, and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds, Book 4205, Page 311, for breach of conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinabove described on January 25, 1923, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgagee and thereon substantially described as follows:

Two certain parcels of land in Lexington, together with the buildings thereon shown as lots No. 30 and No. 36 on Part A of a plan in two parts of Oakmont Park, Lexington, Middlesex, Massachusetts, being the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinabove described on January 25, 1923, at four o'clock in the afternoon, all and singular the premises conveyed by said mortgagee and thereon substantially described as follows:

Northeastly by Lot No. 37, one hundred fifteen and five-tenths

OLD-TIME FAVORITES APPEAR IN "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

January 16th, 1923

TOWN HALL

In an exceptionally brilliant cast, the Community Men's Club presents once more before the public some of Arlington's original players. Mr. George Averill appeared many years ago when Crescent Hall, Arlington Heights was in its balmy days, also Mrs. Walter Vaughn and Mr. William O. Partridge, Jr. Mr. Partridge has been for twenty years a director of dramatics and started with his first attempts in Crescent Hall. He has since that time won considerable fame throughout New England in putting on amateur theatricals.

Miss Leah Wallace

Mrs. Oscar Schnetzer needs no introduction to Arlington audiences having appeared in many of the Arlington Woman's Club and Study Club productions. Others in the cast are Miss Raymond, graduate of Emerson Dramatic school, who plays the lead opposite Mr. Partridge, Jr. Miss Edith Byram of Arlington plays the part of a chorus girl with the ability of an old time actress. Miss Leah Wallace who portrays the part of Ethel has been confined to her bed with tonsilitis but insists that she is going through with the part even though she is now being taken to rehearsals in blankets. This displays the great interest of every one taking part in the production and they are going to put it over in the same manner as the Mid-Winter Carnival went over. Last but not least in the female parts is the petite French Maid, Miss Margaret Danskin, who while she does not have a big part in the production, does the part that she has to do in a very able manner. In addition to Mr. Partridge there is another professional in the cast, Mr. Paul E. Hackett, formerly leading man of the Brockton Stock Company. Mr. Hackett's portrayal of Bishop Doran will be worth the price of admission alone. The other two male characters are ably portrayed by Mr. S. H. Peppard and Frank Kirchgassner. Mr. Peppard's caustic remarks regarding life in general will give the audience something to think about between the laughs.

Miss Leah Wallace

The following will be the guests of the Community Men's Club:—Senator Charles Warren and Mrs. Warren, Representative Ber. S. Currier and Mrs. Currier, Mr. Arthur Readling, District Attorney, Mr. Allen, Middlesex County and Mrs. Readling, Mr. Charles D. Denevaux, Mr. Higgins and Mrs. Higgins, Mr. Crosby and Mrs. Crosby, and Mr. S. Frederick Hicks, all of the Board of Selectmen. Mrs. George B. Rugg, President of Arlington Woman's Club, Mrs. J. Herbert Mead, President of the Study Club. Mrs. George Clark, President of the E. Arlington Community Men's Club, and Mrs. Cowdry, Mr. E. N. Dickinson, President of the Arlington Men's Club, Mr. R. Walter Hilliard, President of the Arlington Board of Trade. Mr. Clayton A. Hilliard, President of the Universalist Men's Club; Rev. and Mrs. Harold L. Stratton. The committee in charge of the program: Fred. R. DeNoyer, general chairman; Walter Sasseur, treasurer; George B. Ottley, secretary; William Wilson, chairman ticket committee; F. Otto Johnson, chairman program committee; and Harry Tinkham, chairman of music committee.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

Plow stopped well off the crossing and Mr. Torrey was able to back his machine off the crossing. Some damage was done to the front of the automobile.

=Mr. J. C. McLean attended the furniture market held at Grand Rapids, Michigan, last week.

=Mr. Arthur O. Yeames who was operated upon for appendicitis at Symmes Arlington Hospital last week, is reported as gaining each day from what was a severe case.

=Mr. Walter S. Kelley, prominent Brookline engineer, is to be the speaker at the Universalist Men's Club, Friday evening, January 19th, in the vestry at eight o'clock. He will present an illustrated lecture on "Unification of Transportation in Boston." His plan has recently received considerable publicity through its presentation, at the request of Mayor Curley, to a large number of influential business men of Boston. All interested are invited to be present.

=The bowling teams of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association made a great spurt this week the Boston pin league team getting a good hold on first place and the Newton league team coming up to the top.

=Gangs of men were put to work handling the deep snow and ice this week and the center of the town is now in a fine condition, in fact the best of any town or city in this vicinity.

=Next Thursday evening, the much talked of pop concert of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association, will be held in the club house. The tables have all been sold.

=The Community Club will be entertained at its next meeting, Wednesday, January 17th, by Mr. L. W. Newell, who will give a travel-talk on Egypt, and the Holy Land, in native costume. The meeting is in G. A. R. Hall, at eight o'clock.

=As a tribute to Mr. Partridge the players of the Howe and Hale Club of Dorchester, will attend "Nothing But The Truth," in a body. Mr. Partridge is now in his fifth season as director of this organization, who have just recently produced "The Tailor Made Man."

=Captain Dan McKay was the guest of the Middlesex Sportsman's Association at their meeting in the club house, Thursday evening. Captain McKay gave a three reel moving picture show and about 100 stereopticon slides of a recent hunting trip taken by him into Ontario.

=Ye Lantern, the new bungalow, located on the shores of Spy Pond, was the scene of a merry party, Wednesday evening, January 10th, when the Mauwalmar Club of Cambridge, gave a dancing party at this attractive bungalow. There were seventy couples present and this is one of series that are to be given in "Ye Lantern." One of the features of the party was the "spot light" dance, when the couple who was fortunate enough to be under the spot light when the music stopped, were given a prize, all of which were not only handsome but useful.

=Hamilton's Lunch, which is located at 434A Mass. avenue, is supplying a long felt need. It serves well cooked food and at a moderate price. The lunch room is conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, who have had experience in this line of work and seem to have sensed the needs of this community for just such a place as they are conducting. Well known business men of the town have gotten the habit of going there for their lunches, also some of our school teachers and business women. Even the school children are catered to.

=Neighbors, and the many friends of Mrs. William F. Keleher have been sorry to learn of her recent prostration at the family home, 99 Jason street. Mrs. Keleher is a member of the music committee of Arlington Woman's Club, and has given most efficient service on that committee because of her deep interest in all matters pertaining to music. It was through her efforts and influence that a group of young people for several years met at the Keleher home for orchestral practice under her direction. Friends hope for her speedy recovery to normal health.

=The annual meeting of Menotomy Trust Company, was held on the afternoon of Tuesday. It was confined wholly to routine business and the election of officers, the board chosen for the ensuing year being as follows:

President—James A. Bailey

Vice-Presidents—Warren A. Peirce, James E. Kimball

Treasurer—John A. Bishop

Directors—H. L. Alderman, Charles W. Allen, James A. Bailey, Thomas J. Donnelly, Harold L. Frost, Martin J. Gallagher, Joseph C. Holmes, James O. Holt, Henry Hornblower, Walter K. Hutchinson, James E. Kimball, Thomas D. Kennedy, M. F. Lane, M. Ernest Moore, Warren A. Peirce, George O. Russell, Frank H. Walker, Franklin Wyman.

Auditing Committee—William E. Wood, Frank W. Hodgen, Peter Schwamb.

=Mr. Albert Dana Stanton of 35 Academy street, passed away Saturday, January 6th, at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, in Boston, where he had been for over three weeks. Mr. Stanton was with Bigelow & Kennard for 33 years, the last few years being at the head of the clock department. He was faithful in all the great and small things of life and was a highly respected and beloved neighbor; a kind and loving father. Mr. Stanton was born in Chelmsford, 76 years ago, and lived in Billerica for 31 years, 20 years ago moving to Arlington. He leaves three daughters, the Misses Grace A. and Eliza F. Stanton, who resided with him, and Mrs. John A. Richardson, Billerica. There is also a grandson, J. Dana Richardson. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Frederick Gill, Wednesday, at 1:30 o'clock, at 35 Academy street, and the burial was in the family lot at Lowell Cemetery.

=The annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, was held Friday afternoon of last week, in the chapel of the First Baptist Church. Reports were read by the secretary and treasurer and the President, Mrs. W. S. Leland, also gave a resume of the year's work. It was expected that Mrs. Henry A. Kidder, who is one of the long time members of the Union, and intensely interested in the temperance question, having been one of the earnest workers instrumental in placing Arlington in the no license column, would be present and give some reminiscences of those early days, but she was unable to do so on account of illness. After the business, a social hour followed, when the hostesses were Mrs. John Blevin and Mrs. M. N. Ogilvie. The officers elected were as follows:—President, Mrs. W. S. Leland, Vice-President, Mrs. Warren A. Peirce, Mrs. Harry

George H. Tewksbury.

OLD-TIME FAVORITES APPEAR IN "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH"

January 16th, 1923

TOWN HALL

In an exceptionally brilliant cast, the Community Men's Club presents once more before the public some of Arlington's original players. Mr. George Averill appeared many years ago when Crescent Hall, Arlington Heights was in its balmy days, also Mrs. Walter Vaughn and Mr. William O. Partridge, Jr. Mr. Partridge has been for twenty years a director of dramatics and started with his first attempts in Crescent Hall. He has since that time won considerable fame throughout New England in putting on amateur theatricals.

Special Offer

Until February 15, 1923

20 Feet Gas Piping Free with Every RADIANTFIRE

10% Discount on any Gas Range or Water Heater

15% Discount on Combination Order of Gas Range and Water Heater

Arlington Gas Light Co.

TELEPHONE ARL. 2000

One of the Patrons of the Advocate writes that since coming to Arlington they selected the

ADVOCATE

AS "THE BEST LOCAL PAPER and have Enjoyed Reading it"

This is only one of many letters that this paper is constantly receiving from its patrons who realize that more news is printed in these columns than in any other local paper in the town.

If You Are Not A Reader, Become One if you desire to keep in touch with the happenings in the town.

Subscription for One Year $2.50

RAWSON FLOWER SHOP

JOSEPH L. BEASLEY, PROP.

Large Assortment of Plants and Cut Flowers

Flowers and Plants Telegraphed Anywhere

Bond member of Florist Telegraph Association

443 Mass. Ave. Arlington, Mass.

Tel. 71 Arlington

T. Gregory, Mrs. W. E. Thomas;
Secretary, Mrs. Louis Patruquin;
Treasurer, Mrs. Philip Alsen.

=Mr. Albert Dana Stanton of 35 Academy street, passed away Saturday, January 6th, at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, in Boston, where he had been for over three weeks. Mr. Stanton was with Bigelow & Kennard for 33 years, the last few years being at the head of the clock department. He was faithful in all the great and small things of life and was a highly respected and beloved neighbor; a kind and loving father. Mr. Stanton was born in Chelmsford, 76 years ago, and lived in Billerica for 31 years, 20 years ago moving to Arlington. He leaves three daughters, the Misses Grace A. and Eliza F. Stanton, who resided with him, and Mrs. John A. Richardson, Billerica. There is also a grandson, J. Dana Richardson. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Frederick Gill, Wednesday, at 1:30 o'clock, at 35 Academy street, and the burial was in the family lot at Lowell Cemetery.

=Mrs. Edwin L. Allen has just assumed an engagement of substitute organist at Dorchester Temple, a Baptist Church, near Codman Square, Dorchester. The engagement began in September, due to the regular organist breaking her arm. Mrs. Allen's playing was much enjoyed by minister and congregation.

=Next Sunday will be observed as "Young People's Day" by the Unitarian churches of this country and Canada. The service at the First Parish Church that morning will be conducted by Miss Eleanor Hyde and Master Richard Davis. Dr. Gill will give the address. The hour is eleven, and the public is cordially invited.

=Owing to the severe storm and the impassable condition of the streets, the annual meeting of the Bradshaw Missionary Association has been postponed from Monday of this week to next Monday, January 15th, in the parlor of the Orthodox Congregational Church. At that time will occur the election of officers and hearing the reports of the year's work.

=NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH has for an important cast member none other than George H. Averill, a veteran of the "palmie days" when Arlington Heights was almost a prairie, electric cars were unknown, and the official "Opery House" was Crescent Hall, where those who remember recall the association of Mr. Averill, Harlan Bean and Mrs. George H. Tewksbury.

=A little over two years ago, the Allen heirs placed on the market, the W. H. Allen homestead, containing 98 lots on Mass. avenue and Broadway, which have been sold to people who have built dwelling houses of the better class. Last April another tract, between Warren street and Mystic boulevard, containing 114 lots, was opened up and more than one half of these have been sold to parties, who propose to build homes for occupancy.

=Mrs. Rodney Paine has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. Edward D. Hooker, at Mrs. Colman's where the latter is boarding this winter. Mrs. Paine was accompanied by her husband, from Duluth, they coming to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hooker and family. He has returned but Mrs. Paine has been extending her visit for several weeks. On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Abram French (Helen Doty), gave an informal tea, for Mrs. Paine, to a group of intimate friends, at the French's apartment, 20 Prescott street, Cambridge.

=An enjoyable snow-shoe party was planned and carried out by Mrs. R. J. Hunt, on Friday, January 5th, for her niece, Miss Isabella Smith who is visiting with her. The guests present were Mrs. E. R. Barker, and daughter, Miriam, Mrs. W. A. Currier and son, Willard, Mrs. L. D. Cotton and son, Daniel, Mrs. Wenslie Smith and daughter, Isabella. The party spent a delightful afternoon on snow shoes and returned to Mrs. Hunt's home, at 1061 Mass. avenue, where tea was served and the younger guests took part in many games.

=NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH has for an important cast member none other than George H. Averill, a veteran of the "palmie days" when Arlington Heights was almost a prairie, electric cars were unknown, and the official "Opery House" was Crescent Hall, where those who remember recall the association of Mr. Averill, Harlan Bean and Mrs. George H. Tewksbury.

touching one for disabled soldiers. The State President, Mrs. Bishop was also present, who talked on membership. Those present from Arlington American Legion Auxiliary were, Mrs. Alice I. Golland, incoming president; Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Axie Wood Upton, Mrs. M. G. Vail. After the meeting adjourned, a social hour was observed, with a catered lunch.

=This is Mr. Partridge's second appearance in the lead in "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH," although it has been under his direction numerous times. His last appearance was for the Watertown Woman's Club.

=Saturday evening at the Heights, an automobile, operated by Guy Ware of 267 Crescent street, Waltham, collided with an electric car owing to the slippery condition of the street. The automobile was damaged somewhat but no one was hurt.

=Mr. DeNoyer, as chairman of the committee for "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH," is once more bringing his "live wire" efforts to bear. The gloriously acceptable management of the Winter Carnival at the Arlmont Golf Club, is but a trifle in his untiring efforts to make "NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH" a success.

=Do you know that there is in Arlington a storage warehouse at 20 Mill street where one can hire one of the 325 separate locked rooms where may be stored your valuables and have them safe from fire or insect destruction? If you care for such service call Arlington Storage Warehouse on Mill street, and let the clerk talk with you.

=Miss Hannah Welch and her niece, Miss Maude J. Welch, will leave within a week for London, England, where they will take charge of the home of Miss Welch's brother, Mr. Frederick C. Welch, whose wife recently passed away. The Misses Welch have been living away from England twelve years, two of which were spent in Melbourne, Australia, the remaining ten years have been passed in America, and the last four years have been enjoyedly passed in Arlington. Miss Hannah Welch has been book-keeper in some of the best Boston stores. Miss Maude Welch visited England two summers ago. Both are present. The noted "Dick" Bowers, Harvard Orchestra, with four pieces will furnish the music. The "Dick" Bowers' four is an excellent drawing card as they are very popular with the dancers. Light refreshments will be served during the intermission. The committee members are Messrs. Irving S. Stone, Ronald MacIntosh, Chamberlain Hoyt Woodruff, Misses Ernestine Crone, Anna Lynah, Eleanor O'Connor. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Junior Class.

5. Keep your lips one-half inch from the mouthpiece of the instrument. If cut off, don't jiggle the hook to recall the operator, but move it up and down slowly.

6. It is aggravating to the average individual to be called to the telephone and then told to "hold the wire." If there is any waiting to be done, it is the caller's obligation to do it.

7. Do not use the telephone longer than necessary. Other people may want to reach you.

8. Report any of your telephone troubles to your local company for every company wants you to have the best service it can provide.

STANLEY HILL POST, AMERICAN LEGION BASKETBALL, MEETS ITS WATERLOO

After winning four straight victories, the fast Stanley Hill Post, American Legion, of Lexington, basketball five, met its Waterloo on Tuesday evening, when it lost a bitterly fought and keenly interesting fray to the Cambridge Knights of Columbus quintet, 28 to 12, in the Town Hall. Cambridge led, 14 to 7, at the end of the first half. McNamara, playing left forward, made four points for Lexington, on two baskets, and Captain Shanahan, left guard, and Kelley, right guard, each made three points, Kelley on a basket and a foul, and Kelley on three fouls.

Others who played for Lexington were McDermott, right forward; Harding, centre; Duffy, right forward; and Wholley, centre, who made a basket. As usual Jiggs Donahue refereed. Dancing followed the game.

JUNIOR DANCE

One of the big social events of the year takes place on Friday evening, at 7:45, January nineteenth, in the Lexington Town Hall. This most popular social event is none other than the annual Junior Dance. This Junior Class event is very popular with Lexington's younger social set and over one hundred couples will be present. The noted "Dick" Bowers, Harvard Orchestra, with four pieces will furnish the music. The "Dick" Bowers' four is an excellent drawing card as they are very popular with the dancers. Light refreshments will be served during the intermission. The committee members are Messrs. Irving S. Stone, Ronald MacIntosh, Chamberlain Hoyt Woodruff, Misses Ernestine Crone, Anna Lynah, Eleanor O'Connor. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Junior Class.

LEXINGTON LOCALS

...The Lexington High school girls' basketball five will open its season, this Friday afternoon, playing the Swampscott High school girls' outfit in the Lexington Town Hall.

...The George G. Meade Post, No. 119, G. A. R., and the Woman's Relief Corps, No. 97, will hold a joint installation, in Grand Army Hall, next Wednesday afternoon, January 17th, at 3 o'clock. The Corps will have its regular meeting before the installation.